WELCOME TO CHROMEHOOUNDS

ABOUT THIS GUIDE

This guide contains all of the tips, tricks, strategies, and information you need to conquer the world of Neroimus, either in single-player or multiplayer mode.

This first chapter provides an overview of general gameplay mechanics and game options. Subsequent chapters cover the following information:

RT TRAINING

There are six different categories or “Role Types” (RTs) of Hounds: soldier, sniper, defender, scout, heavy gunner, and tactical commander. This section of the guide provides advanced strategies for piloting each to victory!

SINGLE-PLAYER RT CAMPAIGNS

The RT Training section provides complete walkthroughs for all six of the single-player RT campaigns, with strategies for achieving the coveted S ranking in each and a list of Hound parts unlocked by doing so.

ONLINE PLAY

The single-player Chrome Hounds experience is great, but it's on Xbox Live! that the game really shines. This section of the guide gives you all the information you need to emerge victorious in online play, from how to create and manage a squad to strategies for Free Battle and Neroimus War to labeled maps for every single multiplayer battlefield.

APPENDICES

This quick-reference section lists the badges that you can unlock, as well as a complete list of purchasable and unlockable Hound parts and color patterns.

THE WORLD OF CHROMEHOOUNDS

In the late 1980s, peace held the world in check with a tenuous grasp. Two of the world's superpowers faced off in lockstep as mutual fear of nuclear war bonded them in a silent agreement for years.

However, a single devastating calamity brought an end to that uneasy balance. Deeply rooted distrust and ignorance of one another led mankind down the foolish path to a third world war.

Twenty years have passed since that day. The endless warring and struggles have given birth to an unprecedented weapon of war—the machines known as “Hounds,” which redefined the rules of battle.

BACKGROUND HISTORY

Up until the early 1980s, the world of Chrome Hounds was a world not unlike our own, but a few key social, political, and environmental variances caused its history to diverge dramatically from the one we know.

EMERGENCE OF SOLAR FLARES

The phenomenon of solar flares expansion, which produced radio interference on a global scale, was first reported in 1980. Due to the delayed identification of the cause, confusion spread across the globe. Consequently, this suspended the logistics of products and materials around the world, which led to regional riots and looting. Several nations fell into a state of anarchy because their governments' chains of command were paralyzed by the disasters. With lack of order and control, the war situations all over the world fluctuated. Weapons such as ballistic missiles (nuclear weapons) and air units became unreliable in the aftermath of solar flares.

U.S.S.R.

In the U.S.S.R., due to the delayed understanding of its domestic situations, the suspension of information functions was prolonged. Consequently, the U.S.S.R. suffered a historic defeat in Afghanistan due to fierce defiance by anti-government forces. Furthermore, its region was invaded by Afghan troops (Bagram War). Also, in its western part, conflicts with the three Baltic states intensified, with each state desiring their independence. As the U.S.S.R. maintained its tough stance, the war intensified and spread to East and North Europe (Baltic War of Independence).

U.S.A.

When violence erupted in various parts of the country, the U.S.A. declared a national state of emergency and successfully kept damages to a minimum under the strong leadership of their president. Since then, the U.S.A. prioritized domestic reconstruction and declared isolationism based on Neo-Monroeism by withdrawing its fleets from the Pacific and Atlantic Oceans and redeploying them to local territories in response to the increasing threat to homeland security.

ASIA

In China, a shortage of materials triggered frustration against the central government to explode in autonomous territories in the outskirts of the country. Riots throughout the nation developed into a state of near civil strife. Although the government quelled them by military means, the imbalance of commodities was unresolved due to their old-fashioned method of distribution. At the time, the government had to respond to both domestic and foreign (Central Asia) issues, which consequently forced the national/regional modernization process in Asia. In the meantime, Japan lost most of its American backing and decided to approach China for its national security and supply of resources.

EUROPE

With much cooperation among Eastern/Central European countries, the Western nations struggled to overcome the crisis of the solar flares and had difficulties securing enough resources for reconstruction. While the U.S. and U.S.S.R. both relaxed their foreign policies in the Middle East to resolve their domestic issues, Eastern/Central countries took it as a good opportunity to gain control of oil resources and intensified their intervention to the ongoing Iran-Iraq War. However, they also announced a policy of non-interference in the Baltic War of Independence.

MIDDLE EAST

The Iran-Iraq War began in 1980 and started to shift toward the advantage of Iran due to the delay of U.S.A.-U.S.S.R. intervention. But Iraq regained momentum with the assistance of Western nations who regarded this as a chance to strengthen their ties in the Middle East.

TIMELINE

- 1945: With the end of the war, military demands decline. Several companies spring up around the military and weapons industry.
Rafzakael is formed.
- 1960: U.S.-Soviet Space Race. As part of this, research gets underway into a new vehicle with a bipedal propulsion mechanism that can be used in low-gravity environments.
- 1960: The Vietnam War (1960-75). In the hopes of developing the ability to travel on uneven ground, the U.S. military experiments with a squad of bipedal tank prototypes.
- 1970: The laboratory comes under attack and the experimental unit is wiped out. The data from the experiments and related personnel become scattered. They are recovered by Rafzakael and distributed to its subsidiary organizations.
- 1980: Iran-Iraq War begins.
- 1980: Rafzakael develops the first model of a new type of tank (ACV: Advanced Combat Vehicle) equipped with the interchangeable weapons system and chassis drive system.
- 1980: Solar flare enlargement phenomenon begins.
- 1981: The largest solar flares in history occur intermittently, causing serious medical disorders all across the world and interrupting the functioning of various infrastructures. A severe shortage of goods develops due to the suspension of distribution.
- 1981: Numerous deaths occur all across the U.S., the Soviet Union, and China due to interruptions in the infrastructure, which lead to large-scale riots.

- 1981: Baltics Independence Conflict. Taking advantage of the domestic chaos in the Soviet Union, the Baltic states join forces and declare their independence, clashing with Soviet forces.
- 1981: East European War. The Baltics Independence Conflict expands into a war throughout Eastern Europe.
- 1981: Within the U.S., the political situation continues to be unstable and the outbreak of war in Eastern Europe feeds the sense of an impending crisis. Support for separatism grows.
- 1981: Reagan Doctrine announced. Stating that domestic stability is their top priority, the U.S. declares a noninvolvement policy with regards to the conflict. A redeployment plan is announced, which will bring the forces stationed overseas closer to home. Breaching military agreements such as the Treaty of Mutual Cooperation and Security with Japan, withdrawal of American forces from abroad begins.
- 1981: The Bagram War. In Soviet-occupied Afghanistan, the guerrilla forces, who have the backing of Rafzakael, rise up all at once in rebellion. ACVs are used in combat for the first time. The Rafzakael mercenary ACV unit achieves brilliant results.
- 1981: Through Rafzakael, ACV technology is distributed to all of the major powers. Development of this technology is advanced at a rapid pace by each.
- 1981: Central Asia Liberation Organization (CALO) formed. The federations of Central Asia as well as Afghanistan unite together to form a great power and declare their opposition to the Soviet Union.
- 1982: Japan-China joint statement (Shanghai Declaration). Declaring the promotion of a structure of comprehensive cooperation between Japan and China, they proceed to sign a treaty and amend their laws. The surrounding nations support this move and East Asia begins to look to Japan and China for leadership.
- 1983: Japan and China establish the Next-generation Energy Technical Research Organization (NETRO), furthering the development of next-generation power systems.
- 1983: ASEAN dissolved. Under the leadership of Japan and China, it is reorganized as the Association of East Asian Nations (AEAN).
- 1983: Organization for East Asia Energy Development (OEAEED) formed. Several projects prospecting for energy resources begin at the superpower level.
- 1984: OEAEED discovers some of the world's largest natural gas deposits in the East China Sea and off the coast of Malaysia.
- 1986: Far East Union formed. Under the leadership of Japan and China, the nations of East and Southeast Asia unite.
- 1987: Ostensibly to aid ethnic minorities, the Far East Union gets involved in the Middle East and comes in on Iraq's side.
- 1987: The next-generation ACVs, "Hounds," see action for the first time. Many mercenaries are deployed.
- 1988: Around this time, Rafzakael begins to distribute Hounds to various nations and development of them continues independently from then on.
- 1988: Gorbachev assumes Office of General Secretary.
- 1988: Iran-Iraq War ends. Under the leadership of the Far East Union, the territories of both Iran and Iraq are divided up.

- 1989: Multiple independent nations form in Northern Iran. In the Neroimus region on the coast of the Black Sea, the Kingdom of Sal Kar is resurrected for the first time in two centuries. Their new king, Sal Kar the 14th, takes the throne.

- 1990: East European War commencement of cease-fire talks (The Montreux Conference).

- 1995: Central Asia independence movement. Under pressure from the Far East Union and wary of a Soviet reunification, the Afghan power approves the independence of several countries.

NATIONS AND FACTIONS

Three nations vie for dominance in the conflict known as the Neroimus War. All are supplied by the shadowy faction known as Rafzakael.

DEMOCRATIC REPUBLIC OF TARAKIA

Area: 68,540 sq. km	Head of State: President (4-year term)
Population: 4,520,000	Government Type: Republic
Capital: Xeres	Industries: Farming, Iron and Steel, Machinery
Ethnicity: Mixed	Currency: Tarakian dollar
Language: English
Religion: Multi-religion/ denominational

A multi-ethnic nation located in the Western region of Neroimus. Although the nation declared independence after the Eastern European War (1981-92), the connections with its Western European allies to counter the ex-Soviet/Afghan power within Neroimus is hard to deny. Since the War of Black Sea (1998-2000), the nation has been heavily supported by the U.S.A., which was interested in expanding into their Eurasian diplomacy. Tarakia is more modern and democratic compared to its neighbors in Neroimus, but it struggles to find a common consensus within the country.

REPUBLIC OF MORSKOJ

Area: 62,380 sq. km	Head of State: President (4-year term)
Population: 3,580,000	Government Type: Republic
Capital: Ostrov	Industries: Mining, Timber, Farming, Metallurgy
Ethnicity: Native of Morskoj, others	Currency: Isra
Language: Morskavian, Russian
Religion: Russian Orthodox, others

The former Soviet state is located in the eastern region of Neroimus. The people of Morskoj are now independent, but suffered many hardships as a minority when the U.S.S.R. had control. Geographically, the country is covered with rigid mountainous areas which were once rich with mining resources. Morskoj currently faces a state of tension against the Great Soviet Socialist Republic, which is scheming for a reunion. However, the nations are on much friendlier terms with the Republic of Russia, which is also in opposition toward the G.S.S.R.

KINGDOM OF SAL KAR

Area: 20,800 sq. km	Religion: Sal Kari State Religion
Population: 2,280,000	Head of State: National King
Capital: Qura	Government Type: Limited Monarchy
Ethnicity: People of Sal Kar	Industries: Oil, Gas
Language: Karic	Currency: Ziyad

The extended history of the Sal Kari Dynasty is rooted to the ancestors of the great Ottoman Empire. Historically, the nation experienced a prolonged period of hardship since their kingdom's fall, but recovered greatly during the period when the Middle East was reorganized. Despite the fact that this nation was forced to depend on imported foods and consumer goods due to its size and desert land, the world quickly turned its attention to Sal Kar since their abundant underground resources were discovered. Religiously, the nation pledges not to fight a war, but its military arrangements are aggressively updated.

RAFZAKAEL

Rafzakael is a secret society founded by arms developers from around the world. With its powerful connections to every conceivable country, organization, and movement, they have access to just about anything related to war. They are rumored to have their own military, which is dispatched to various war fronts to "control the market."

HOUD ASSEMBLY

Our walkthrough for the single-player story mode is written using the “borrowed Hounds” you are automatically provided with for each mission. However, you can also assemble your own custom Hound and use it in the missions. When you play online, you must assemble your own Hound from the parts you purchase in the online shop.

ACQUIRING PARTS

In the single-player story mode, you acquire parts for your Hound by completing missions. Each mission you complete successfully awards you at least one Hound part. If you score the coveted S ranking on a mission, you also unlock an additional part.

When playing online, you acquire parts by purchasing them from the shop with money earned in battle. You can also enter lotteries after battles for enemy parts used in the battle. See the “Online Play” section of this guide for more information on purchasing and acquiring parts online.

THE GARAGE

The garage is where the magic happens. In either single-player or online mode, this is where you go to assemble a Hound from the parts you have acquired. Upon entering the garage, choose Assemble Hound to start building.

Hounds are built from the ground up, starting with the mobility base (leg parts), followed by the cockpit. All other parts are built off of the cockpit. Parts are arranged in the following categories:

- LEG PARTS: THESE PARTS DETERMINE THE SPEED AND WEIGHT CAPACITY FOR THE HOUND. THEY COME IN A VARIETY OF STYLES, INCLUDING TWO-LEGGED, FOUR-LEGGED, TREADED, HOVER, AND WHEEL.

- COCKPIT: THIS IS THE BEATING HEART OF THE HOUND. IF IT IS DESTROYED, THE HOUND IS RENDERED INOPERABLE. THE THICKER THE COCKPIT’S ARMOR, THE HEAVIER IT IS. COCKPITS INCLUDE SMALL GENERATORS TO POWER SOME HOUND FUNCTIONS.
- GENERATOR: THESE SUPPLY ENERGY TO THE HOUND, WHICH KEEPS ITS TRAVEL AND TURNING SPEED HIGH. YOU CAN ATTACH MULTIPLE GENERATORS TO INCREASE POWER OUTPUT.
- NA MAKER: VITAL FOR TACTICAL COMMANDER HOUNDS, NA MAKERS BROADCAST A NETWORK AREA THAT ALLOWS THE HOUND TO STAY IN COMMUNICATION WITH FRIENDLY UNITS AND GIVE THEM ORDERS.
- HEAVY ARMS: THESE ARE POWERFUL WEAPONS WITH EXTREMELY HIGH OFFENSIVE POWER AND LOAD COSTS. THEY CAN BE TRICKY TO INSTALL DUE TO THEIR SIZE.
- LIGHT ARMS: SMALLER AND LESS POWERFUL THAN HEAVY ARMS, LIGHT ARMS ARE ALSO MORE VERSATILE AND CAN BE COMBINED INTO WEAPON SLOT GROUPS.
- SPACER: THESE PARTS CREATE MORE SOCKETS THAT YOU CAN ATTACH PARTS TO. THEY COME IN ESPECIALLY HANDY WHEN YOU’RE TRYING TO INSTALL LARGER PARTS THAT WOULDN’T OTHERWISE FIT ON THE HOUND.
- ASSIST PARTS: THIS IS A MISCELLANEOUS CATEGORY OF PARTS THAT ADD ADDITIONAL FUNCTIONALITY TO THE HOUND, INCLUDING NIGHT VISION, EXTRA FUEL, ARMOR, AND COOLING.

HOUD STATS

If you throw all of your favorite parts onto a Hound, you’re going to wind up with a huge mess. You need to strike a balance between several different important characteristics, all of which are displayed in a box at the lower-right corner of the garage screen:

HOUD STATISTICS

STAT	WHAT IT AFFECTS	HOW TO OPTIMIZE IT
LOAD	THE HOUND’S MAXIMUM WEIGHT, IN TONS. IF THIS IS SURPASSED, THE HOUND WILL NOT BE ABLE TO MOVE.	CHOOSE HEAVIER LEG PARTS THAT GRANT HIGHER LOAD CAPACITY.
ENERGY USE	THE FIRST NUMBER IS HOW MUCH ENERGY THE HOUND USES. THE SECOND NUMBER IS HOW MUCH ENERGY IS PROVIDED. IF YOU AREN’T SUPPLYING SUFFICIENT ENERGY TO THE HOUND, YOUR MOVEMENT AND TURNING SPEED WILL BE REDUCED.	GENERATORS PROVIDE ENERGY TO THE HOUND. IF ONE GENERATOR ISN’T MEETING YOUR ENERGY NEEDS, CONSIDER A SECOND ONE, OR TRY REMOVING SOME OTHER PARTS TO LOWER THE AMOUNT OF ENERGY BEING USED.

HEAT/COOLING	THIS IS A MEASURE OF THE AMOUNT OF HEAT PRODUCED BY THE HOUND AND THE HOUND'S ABILITY TO COOL ITSELF. IF THE SECOND NUMBER IS LOWER THAN THE FIRST, IT MEANS THE HOUND GENERATES MORE HEAT THAN IT CAN COOL, WHICH RESULTS IN THE HOUND MOVING AND RELOADING MORE SLOWLY AS THE BATTLE PROGRESSES.	INSTALL RADIATORS TO RAISE THE COOLING NUMBER, OR REMOVE HEAVIER, ENERGY-INTENSIVE PARTS TO LOWER THE HEAT NUMBER.

RT TRAINING

TIP

EVEN IF YOU'RE SURE WHICH ROLE TYPE (RT) OF HOUND YOU WANT TO PLAY, IT'S WORTH READING THIS ENTIRE TRAINING SECTION. FEW HOUNDS ARE PURELY ONE RT. MOST ARE CALLED UPON TO FILL SECONDARY ROLES AS WELL. FOR INSTANCE, A SOLDIER RT MIGHT BE CALLED UPON TO SEIZE A COMBAS LIKE A SCOUT, OR CERTAIN TACTICS COMMANDERS MIGHT BE EQUIPPED TO PICK OFF DISTANT ENEMIES LIKE A SNIPER. WHEN DESIGNING A CUSTOM HOUND, THINK ABOUT YOUR PREFERRED PLAY STYLE AND THE NEEDS OF YOUR SQUAD, AND BUILD YOUR HOUND ACCORDINGLY.

SOLDIER RT TRAINING

The soldier RT fills the role of an infantryman in a conventional army. As front-line combat specialists, soldier RTs throw themselves into battle and meet their enemies up close and personal. Their primary role is to destroy enemy Hounds and headquarters based on information provided to them by scouts and commanders. Their secondary role is to be as versatile as possible and adapt to battlefield conditions as they change.

HEAD-TO-HEAD COMBAT

The soldier RT is at its best when it's in the thick of combat at medium and close ranges. The following tactics will help you master the art of close-range fighting.

KEEP THE HIGH GROUND

By design, most Hound weapon systems have a wider range of motion downward than they do upward. That means that if you're above enemies on a steep incline, it's possible that you can shoot at them without having to worry about them returning fire.

Another advantage of being uphill of enemies is the fact that they move more slowly traveling uphill to close in with you than you do moving downhill to confront them. Use this to good effect by swooping in and unloading on enemies before they can react.

HOLDING THE HIGH GROUND CAN PREVENT ENEMIES FROM FIRING AT YOU.

CIRCLE-STRAFING

Circle-strafing is a valuable technique for avoiding enemy fire while keeping a target in your sights. Basically, it's moving sideways around the target in a wide circle while keeping your reticle trained on the enemy and firing whenever you have a shot. A target that's moving from side to side is harder to hit than a stationary target or one that's moving straight toward or away from you.

MOVE SIDEWAYS IN A WIDE ARC AROUND AN ENEMY TO KEEP HIM IN YOUR SIGHTS AND STAY OUT OF HIS.

TIP

TO MAXIMIZE THE DEFENSIVE EFFECTIVENESS OF A CIRCLE-STRAFE, CHANGE DIRECTIONS UNPREDICTABLY SO YOUR ENEMIES CAN'T ANTICIPATE WHERE YOU'RE GOING TO BE.

Also, if you damaged an enemy's leg parts, that limits pivoting speed. If he didn't pivot quickly in the first place, and you're faster, you might be able to constantly circle-strafe around him and hit him from behind, where his slow-turning guns can't reach you.

LONG-RANGE ENEMIES

When fighting enemies with long-range capabilities, such as snipers or heavy gunners, don't trade shots with them from far away. That's playing by their rules, and their long-range weaponry will eat your lunch. Instead, advance toward them, zigzagging back and forth in an attempt to avoid their fire.

DON'T TRADE SHOTS WITH ENEMIES WITH SUPERIOR LONG-RANGE CAPABILITIES. CLOSE THE DISTANCE BETWEEN YOU BEFORE ENGAGING.

As you draw near, it might be worth popping off a few shots, but don't sacrifice your evasive maneuvers for the sake of lining up a shot. Most soldier Hounds' weapons work best at medium to close range, which is where most Hounds geared toward long-range combat start suffering problems.

TIP

IF YOU'RE ATTACKING WITH A WEAPON THAT ISN'T FULLY AUTOMATIC, FIRE ONLY WHEN YOU'VE GOT A SHOT. DON'T JUST HOLD DOWN THE TRIGGER. NOT ONLY DOES THAT OFTEN RESULT IN OFF-TARGET FIRING, IT PREVENTS YOU FROM HAVING A SHOT AT THE READY WHEN YOU'RE LINED UP. IT ALSO MAKES IT EASY FOR ENEMIES TO PREDICT WHEN YOUR NEXT SHOT WILL COME.

SNIPER RT TRAINING

Sniper RTs are sharpshooters who occupy positions behind the front lines and pick off enemies from a distance, preferably without being seen. They primarily function in a support role and are not geared toward front-line combat.

ZOOMING IN SNIPERS RELY ON THE WEAPON CAM.

Every Hound weapon slot is equipped with a camera mounted on one of the weapons, referred to as a weapon cam. In the default third-person view, the weapon cam view is minimized to a small box in the screen's upper-right corner. Pressing Q switches the position of the two views, putting the third-person view in the small box and expanding the weapon cam view to fill the screen.

The weapon cam gives you a zoomed-in view of the action from the weapon's perspective, with a targeting reticle that indicates where the weapon cam weapon's shot will hit, provided that the target is within range of the weapon. Every weapon has a different weapon cam view, and sniper rifles zoom in much farther than other weapons.

When customizing a Hound in the garage, use the Weapon Settings option to group weapons into a single weapon slot. Firing that weapon slot fires all weapons in the slot simultaneously. The weapon cam perspective for that slot is taken from the weapon in the first box of the weapon slot.

TIP

WHEN DESIGNING A HOUND, MAKE SURE THAT EACH WEAPON SLOT IS MADE UP OF WEAPONS THAT ARE ADJACENT TO EACH OTHER TO ENSURE MAXIMUM WEAPON CAM ACCURACY. IF YOU GROUP TWO WEAPONS ON THE LEFT SIDE OF THE HOUND WITH TWO FROM THE RIGHT SIDE, THE WEAPON CAM RETICLE WILL BE ACCURATE ONLY FOR THE WEAPONS NEAR IT.

The only drawback of the weapon cam is that it gives you tunnel vision. If you're fixated on a distant enemy, you might not be paying attention to your radar while another enemy sneaks up on you. Always keep one eye on your radar to prevent sneak attacks!

SNIPING MOVING TARGETS

Sniping stationary targets isn't too tough. The true test of a sniper's skill is the ability to pick off a moving target at a long range. Some sniper rifles fire fast-moving projectiles, which means that, at most ranges, all you have to do is keep the crosshairs on the target and pull the trigger.

TO SNIPER MOVING TARGETS, ACCOUNT FOR THEIR RATE OF SPEED AND LEAD THEM.

However, many sniper weapons—especially the lower-end ones that you have to make do with early in the game—don't fire as quickly. That means that by the time the bullet reaches the enemy, the enemy may have moved past it. To pick off fast-moving enemies with slow weapons, aim your reticle ahead of the enemy's location, anticipating where he's going to be.

USING COVER

Snipers are one of the least heavily armored RTs, so you must avoid the line of fire. That means you've got to know how to use cover effectively. There are two types of cover: soft cover and hard cover.

COMPENSATE FOR YOUR LACK OF ARMOR BY USING COVER TO CONCEAL OR PROTECT YOU FROM ENEMIES.

Soft cover is cover that conceals rather than protects, such as trees. It won't stop enemy fire, but you can hide from enemies in it and fire through it when you have a shot. If you remain absolutely motionless, you won't appear on enemy radar until you fire. Soft cover is perfect when planning to ambush an enemy.

TIP

ALTHOUGH YOU WANT TO TAKE OUT THE ENEMY AS QUICKLY AS POSSIBLE, IT'S NOT A BAD IDEA TO WAIT FOR YOUR SHOT. EVEN IF YOU'RE CONCEALED, YOUR ENEMIES WILL PINPOINT YOUR LOCATION WHEN YOU FIRE YOUR FIRST SHOT, SO MAKE SURE THAT EVERY SHOT YOU FIRE WILL BE A HIT, BECAUSE YOUR THIN ARMOR WON'T STAND UP TO A DIRECT ASSAULT.

Hard cover—including buildings, walls, and rocks—stops enemy fire until it's destroyed, but you can't shoot through it either. It's best used when you know that you're going to draw the enemy's attention and just want to keep them from hitting you with return fire.

TIP

IF YOU POSITION YOUR HOUND BEHIND HARD COVER, YOU CAN HAVE YOUR WEAPON POKING OUT, WHILE THE BULK OF YOUR HOUND IS PROTECTED. SWITCH INTO WEAPON CAM MODE AND FIRE AWAY, SECURE IN THE KNOWLEDGE THAT THE ONLY THING YOUR ENEMIES CAN HIT (UNTIL THE COVER IS DESTROYED) IS YOUR WEAPON, WHICH IS A SMALLER AND LESS VITAL TARGET THAN YOUR COCKPIT.

TARGETING PARTS

THE COCKPIT IS THE HEART OF EVERY HOUND, BUT YOU CAN PICK OFF OTHER PARTS AS WELL IF YOUR STRATEGY CALLS FOR IT.

Most of the time, your objective is to completely destroy the target at which you're shooting. However, there are times when it's strategically more important to cripple the target. For example, if you're fighting an online battle where destroyed enemies respawn with full health and ammo, you might decide to target the legs and weapons of enemy Hounds to disable them without destroying them and causing them to respawn. A good sniper can cripple an enemy as well as destroy it.

DEFENDER RT TRAINING

Consider defender RTs to be the "goalies" of Chrome Hounds. They are best used to guard points of strategic importance, such as allied bases. Because they tend to stay rooted to one spot and are designed to take a pounding, defenders generally load themselves down with heavy weapons and armor. This is not a finesse RT. It's a down-and-dirty brawler and the squad's first—and sometimes only—line of defense.

CLOSE IN FOR THE KILL

DEFENDER RTs' WEAPONS WORK BEST AT VERY CLOSE RANGE, AND THEIR ARMOR IS THICK ENOUGH TO TAKE A POUNDING.

For a variety of reasons, defender RTs should advance quickly upon any enemy that approaches the area that they're defending. Defenders' weapons generally work best when they're up close and personal with their adversaries, and the thick armor covering most defenders can withstand enemy attacks.

The other reason that defenders should rush forward and confront enemies is because it draws the enemies' attention away from allied units and areas of interest. If a defender closes in on an attacker, that attacker has no choice but to deal with the defender and can't worry about seizing a COMBAS, destroying a base, or attacking a tactics commander until the defender has been destroyed.

TIP

DON'T EVER STRAY TOO FAR FROM THE AREA OR UNIT YOU'RE DEFENDING. A COMMON TACTIC FOR DEALING WITH DEFENDERS IS TO SEND IN SWIFT ATTACKERS TO DRAW THE ATTENTION OF THE DEFENDER AND LURE IT AWAY FROM THE AREA OR OBJECT IN QUESTION SO THAT A SECOND ATTACK FORCE CAN ADVANCE. REMEMBER, A DEFENDER'S JOB ISN'T TO HUNT DOWN AND DESTROY EVERY ENEMY WITHIN SIGHT, IT'S TO PREVENT THE DESTRUCTION OF WHATEVER IT IS CHARGED WITH DEFENDING.

ATTACK HEAD-ON

One of the hardest things to get used to about piloting a defender RT is wading straight into battle and confronting enemies head-on, but that's exactly what good defenders do. Remember, your armor is thick enough to withstand enemy fire, and most defender weapons are short-range and high-impact. And quite frankly, the mobility of most defenders is so limited that you can't get away with any fancy moves, so just wade into the fray with guns blazing.

WEAPONS SUCH AS CLUSTERS OF ROCKETS WORK BEST AGAINST GROUPS OF ENEMIES WHEN FIRED STRAIGHT-ON AT THEM.

SCOUT RT TRAINING

Mobile, lightly armored, and incredibly fast, scouts specialize in gathering intel, seizing COMBASs, and making hit-and-run attacks against slower foes. Piloting a scout successfully requires quick reflexes and a high degree of skill, but if you possess both of these attributes, this is the RT for you.

CAPTURING COMBAS

One of the scout's most important duties is to capture COMBASs so that all allied units can remain in communication. Every battlefield map contains several COMBAS towers, and Hounds have a device that allows them to seize control of a COMBAS for their squad simply by remaining close to it for a few seconds.

CAPTURING COMBASs EXTENDS THE RANGE OF YOUR NA.

When a COMBAS is seized, it extends the range of the network area (NA) in a radius around the COMBAS. If all allied units are within the NA, their tactics commander can send them macro commands and view the locations of friendly and enemy units. All allied units within the NA can also communicate verbally via the Xbox Live headset (online play only). For these reasons, capturing COMBASs is a strategic must for any squad, and the speed of the scout makes it the ideal RT to get the job done.

TIP

IF YOU'RE UNDER ENEMY FIRE WHILE CAPTURING A COMBAS, KEEP THE COMBAS BETWEEN YOU AND THE ENEMY AND USE IT AS COVER WHILE YOU'RE CAPTURING IT.

AVOID COMBAT

To lighten their load enough to travel quickly, most scouts lack heavy armor and weapons, which makes them ill-suited for direct combat. That's not to say that a scout should run from every enemy encounter, but generally speaking, discretion is the better part of valor for scouts.

If a scout is going to actively participate in combat, choose where and how very carefully. Scouts can execute stealth attacks with a speed that no other RT can match. If the scout remains motionless, it is invisible to enemy radar until it moves or fires, which gives the scout time for one or two fast attacks before the enemy has a chance to respond.

TIP

PILES ARE HIGH-IMPACT. POINT-BLANK WEAPONS THAT CAN BE PUT TO GOOD USE BY SCOUTS WHO REMAIN MOTIONLESS UNTIL AN ENEMY DRAWS NEAR, THEN SPEED UP TO THE ENEMY AND POUND IT WITH LETHAL FORCE.

The golden rule of combat for scouts is: don't be afraid to retreat. If you can't finish an enemy off by the time it starts returning fire, break off the attack rather than take damage. If the enemy manages to overcome your stealth and speed, it won't be long before the foe finishes you off, so get the hell out before things take a turn for the worse.

LURING ENEMIES

"OH GOSH! I'M JUST A SIMPLE, LIGHTLY ARMORED SCOUT! I SURE HOPE THESE ENEMIES DON'T FOLLOW ME INTO THIS BRIAR PATCH!"

One excellent luring tactic is to have several stationary allies waiting at an ambush point, remaining completely still so that they don't show up on radar. The scout then executes a hit-and-run attack against nearby enemies in an attempt to get them to follow, like poking a stick into a hornet's nest. The scout then hightails it back to the ambush site, dodging fire as best it can, and its allies swoop in for the kill.

Another good luring tactic is to use the scout as a feint against defending enemies. If a fast-moving scout can cause enough aggravation to convince enemy defenders to chase it and leave their HQ undefended or under-defended, a second group of allies can roll up and destroy it without having to worry about being obliterated by the enemy.

SCOUTS ARE GENERALLY BETTER OFF AVOIDING COMBAT THAN ENGAGING THE ENEMY.

KNOW THE TERRAIN

A scout's biggest advantage is its speed, and the battlefield terrain has a direct and measurable effect on how fast the scout can travel across it. Paved roads let you move the most quickly, followed by packed earth and grassy plains. Sand is not optimal for fast movement, and snow, mud, and water slow you down dramatically.

A HOVER CHASSIS CAN COMPENSATE FOR WATERY TERRAIN.

Depending on which leg parts the scout has installed, however, you can compensate for a terrain disadvantage. For instance, a hover chassis lets you move across the surface of a lake as easily as a paved road, but you pay for it with a lower top speed than one provided by a wheeled chassis.

NOTE

PAY ATTENTION TO THE TERRAIN'S INCLINE AS WELL. YOU MOVE MORE SLOWLY GOING UPHILL THAN DOWNHILL, AND IF YOU TRY TO MOVE DOWN A STEEP INCLINE, YOU MIGHT GO INTO A SLIDE THAT WILL DAMAGE YOUR LEG PARTS.

HEAVY GUNNER RT TRAINING

Heavy gunners are similar to snipers in that they attack targets at long range. However, unlike a sniper, heavy gunners sacrifice precision for the ability to lob low-accuracy, high-powered shells at their targets. They are best used for attacking enemy bases, destroying structures that can be used as cover, and obliterating entire groups of enemies at a time. Heavy gunners also tend to be some of the game's slowest Hounds, so they rely on soldiers, scouts, and snipers for support.

MEASURING RANGES

MAKE SURE TO CHECK THE SIZE OF THE MAP ON THE BRIEFING SCREEN SO THAT YOU KNOW HOW LARGE AN AREA IS REPRESENTED BY EACH GRID SQUARE.

Your weapon cam's range finder displays the estimated distance at which your bombardment will land, provided that you are on the same level as your target. The distance is expressed in meters, so be sure to look at the size of each map during the mission briefing to have an idea of how large each square on your in-game map is.

For instance, if you are fighting on a 3,000 x 3,000 meter map that has a grid of 10 rows and 10 columns, you know that each square on the grid is 300 x 300 meters. So if you're exactly two squares away from a target on the same level as you, start bombarding at 600 meters.

SATURATION, NOT PRECISION

Heavy gunners and snipers both attack at long ranges, but other than that, the two RTs could not be more different. Where snipers try to hit enemies dead-on with each and every shot, heavy gunners essentially saturate an area with high explosives and hope for the best. All explosive ammunition types—including rockets, mortars, and grenades—deal splash damage to any targets in their blast radius, so you don't need to drop a bomb directly on a foe's head. As the old saying goes, "close only counts in horseshoes and hand grenades."

The best way to saturate a target is to determine its range by calculating the distance with the assistance of the in-game map (see above). Once you've got your best guess as to how far away it is, lower your estimate by 50–100 meters and start firing. Increase the distance with each shot until you're about 100 meters over your estimate. Watch the shells land, see which ones come closest to hitting the target (if they don't destroy the target altogether), and then fire another round of shells at that range if necessary.

ANTICIPATE RECOIL

PAY ATTENTION TO THE RECOIL THAT RESULTS FROM FIRING HEAVY WEAPONS AND READJUST ACCORDINGLY BETWEEN EACH SHOT.

If you're bombarding to find the range of your target (see above), you can use the recoil to your advantage. For example, if the weapon's recoil increases the range of the next shot by 30 meters, that means that each subsequent shot will land 30 meters farther than the last, so there's no need to readjust between shots.

HEAVY WEAPONS AREN'T ACCURATE, BUT WITH THE KIND OF PUNCH THEY PACK, THEY DON'T NEED TO BE.

BLOW UP EXPLOSIVES

TAKE ADVANTAGE OF NATURALLY EXPLOSIVE STRUCTURES TO DETONATE NEARBY BUILDINGS AND ENEMIES.

and target those first. The resulting explosions bring down nearby structures and damage or destroy any enemies foolish enough to be using them for cover, thus saving you valuable time and ammunition.

NOTE

CONSERVING AMMUNITION IS A MAJOR CONCERN FOR HEAVY GUNNERS. BECAUSE THEIR ROCKETS AND MORTARS ARE SO LARGE AND HEAVY, THEY CAN'T CARRY VERY MANY OF THEM. FORTUNATELY, IN ONLINE GAMES WHERE THE "RESUPPLY" OPTION IS TURNED ON, HEAVY GUNNERS CAN STICK NEAR THE BASES THEY'RE DEFENDING AND RELOAD THEIR AMMUNITION AT REGULAR INTERVALS.

TACTICS COMMANDER RT-TRAINING

Tactics commanders are the brains of any squad. Without a good commander, even the most skilled Hound pilots will be overwhelmed and obliterated by a well-organized enemy. Commanders tend not to engage in direct combat unless absolutely necessary. Their value comes from analyzing the battlefield map, improvising strategy, and giving orders to the rest of the squad that allow them to function as a single, highly effective force.

MANAGE THE NA

THE COMMANDER'S PRIMARY ROLE IS TO KEEP THE NA ACTIVE SO THAT COMMANDS CAN BE ISSUED TO ALL SQUAD MEMBERS.

The commander is the only unit equipped with an NA maker, which extends a network area (NA) in a radius around the commander's Hound. The commander can communicate with and issue orders to any allied unit within range of the NA.

Commanders can also see all allied and enemy units within range of the NA on the in-game map, even if they are standing still and unable to be detected on Hound radar.

Seizing COMBASs extends the range of the NA, provided that the COMBASs and NA maker are all contiguous to each other. Maintaining the NA is the tactics commander's most important role. The larger the NA, the more of the battlefield the commander can see. Without being able to communicate effectively with fellow squad members, the commander can't come up with strategy or monitor enemy movements, which puts the entire squad at a distinct disadvantage.

STAY OUT OF THE ACTION

A commander is too valuable to risk on the field of battle, especially when fighting a battle where respawning is not allowed. If you're a hands-on player who likes to dive into the thick of the fray, the commander RT might not be for you. If the commander goes down, so does the squad's ability to monitor enemy movements across the

NA. If a commander ever does wind up on the front lines, it should be as a last resort, when all other squad members have been destroyed or are well on their way there.

THE COMMANDER ISN'T CUT OUT FOR FRONT-LINE COMBAT. HANG BACK AND SEND THE REST OF THE SQUAD OUT TO DO THE DIRTY WORK.

KNOW YOUR ROLE (TYPES)

There's a good reason that the commander RT description appears last in this chapter, after every other role type. To be an effective commander, you need to understand the strengths and weaknesses of every other Hound RT. You need to know when it makes more sense to use a sniper and a scout than two soldiers, or where a heavy gunner should stand in order to best shell an enemy HQ.

There's no substitute for hands-on experience with the other RTs. Any player who wants to be a good commander in online mode should at the very least play through the five non-commander single-player RT campaigns.

SOLDIER WALKTHROUGH: FRONT-LINE SPECIALIST CAMPAIGN

RAFZAKAEL TEST FIELD

EVALUATION CRITERIA

- TIME ELAPSED
- ACCURACY
- DAMAGE TAKEN

EXTRA OPERATIONS

- NONE

TO EARN AN S RANKING FOR THIS MISSION, YOU MUST EARN AT LEAST 3,000 POINTS. COMPLETING THE MISSION UNLOCKS:

- COCKPIT RFZ-CK-A2
 - SYSTEM DEVICE RFZ-MC-1
 - SYSTEM DEVICE RFZ-TC-1
 - SYSTEM DEVICE RFZ-HC-1
 - STANDARD RAFZAKAEL CAMO COLOR PATTERN
- EARNING AN S RANKING UNLOCKS:
- ASSAULT RIFLE RFZ-WAR-1

Before you can begin any of the six single-player RT campaigns, you must first complete the General Training tutorial mission, which familiarizes you with the basic Hound controls. Your instructor is Edgardo Gilardino. Follow his commands explicitly.

Your initial objectives are simple movement and targeting exercises. Move to point E7 and shoot the three stationary tanks parked there. Look to the northeast to find several more tanks and try out your other weapons on them.

When all of the tanks to the northeast have been destroyed, select weapon slot 3 and look to the southwest beyond the settlement to find four more stationary tanks. Use your weapon cam to zoom in on them and snipe them from a distance.

TIP

ACCURACY IS ONE OF THE THREE CRITERIA YOU'RE EVALUATED ON IN THIS MISSION. DON'T TAKE THE SHOT UNLESS THE TARGET IS LINED UP IN THE CENTER OF YOUR CROSSHAIRS.

Approach COMBAS J at point G7 and stand still next to it for a few seconds to capture it. This extends the range of your network area (NA) and allows you to remain in radio contact with your commander across a longer distance.

USE WEAPON SLOT 3'S WEAPON CAM TO SNIPE THE TANKS FROM A DISTANCE.

After securing the COMBAS, your final objective is to destroy mobile enemies in a live-fire combat exercise. Enemies appear at points G6, G7, G8, and H8. It's easy to feel overwhelmed, but remember two very important things: the enemies are incredibly weak, and they are very slow-moving. As long as you stay in motion so that they cannot get a lock on you and make good use of the short- and long-range weapons at your disposal, you should have no problem defeating them handily. Once you have destroyed them all, the mission is complete.

USE THE TECHNIQUES YOU HAVE LEARNED THUS FAR TO DESTROY THE FINAL WAVE OF ENEMIES.

TIP

AIM AND FIRE ACCURATELY TO KEEP YOUR EVALUATION SCORE HIGH. BY REMAINING IN MOTION, YOU SHOULD AVOID MOST ENEMY FIRE, WHICH HELPS KEEP DAMAGE TO A MINIMUM AND IMPROVES THAT ASPECT OF YOUR EVALUATION SCORE AS WELL.

SOLDIER MISSION 1: SOLDIER TRAINING

RAFZAKAEL TEST FIELD

- TIME ELAPSED
- ENEMIES DESTROYED
- AVERAGE ATTACK DISTANCE

EXTRA OPERATIONS

- COMPLETE "REAL COMBAT" IN UNDER 3 MINUTES (1,000 POINTS)

TO EARN AN S RANKING FOR THIS MISSION, YOU MUST EARN AT LEAST 3,000 POINTS. COMPLETING THE MISSION UNLOCKS:

- BIPEDAL CHASSIS RFZ-TL-2
 - STANDARD TARAKIAN CAMO PATTERN
- EARNING AN S RANKING UNLOCKS:
- ARMOR RFZ-AAM-2

The first mission of the soldier campaign is another training mission. Geared specifically for the soldier RT, it builds upon the skills mastered in the general tutorial. Edgardo Gilardino is once again your instructor. Start by attacking the moving targets at point G1, labeled with a "1" on your in-game map. These bipedal ACVs do not return fire, so take this opportunity to test out your Hound's various weapons.

TIP

USE HIGH-ACCURACY WEAPONS, SUCH AS LIGHT MACHINE GUNS, AGAINST FASTER TARGETS. HEAVILY ARMORED FOES TEND TO MOVE MUCH MORE SLOWLY AND SHOULD BE ATTACKED WITH HIGH-DAMAGE WEAPONS THAT SACRIFICE SOME ACCURACY FOR POWER.

Once the bipedal ACVs are destroyed, proceed to F1 and destroy the light tanks there. Once again, they do not return fire, so focus solely on destroying them quickly and accurately. Use your radar to find them if you're having trouble locating them all.

Next, it's on to point D1, where you must destroy two quadrupedal ACVs with long-range capabilities. Your first priority is to safely close the distance between you and them by moving toward them in an irregular zigzag pattern to avoid their mortar fire. Use weapon slot 3's rockets to eradicate them.

YOUR LIGHT MACHINE GUN IS THE PERFECT WEAPON TO TAKE OUT THE FAST-MOVING TANKS.

CAUTION

USING YOUR WEAPON CAM GIVES YOU GREATER ACCURACY, BUT IT LIMITS YOUR PERIPHERAL VISION. THAT'S NOT AS MUCH OF AN ISSUE WHEN DEALING WITH ENEMIES AT A DISTANCE, SUCH AS THESE FOES, BUT KEEP THAT IN MIND IN THE FUTURE.

Once they're destroyed, move north of the quadrupeds' position and advance up the hill to the east to sneak up on a third one and destroy it quickly without having to dodge its fire.

CLIMB THE HILL TO THE EAST TO SNEAK UP ON THE THIRD QUADRUPED.

Your last objective is to locate and destroy several groups of enemy units. Edgardo points them out to you as they appear in the NA. The locations of all enemy groups are labeled with numbers on your in-game map. When a group has been entirely destroyed, its number disappears from the map. The enemies appear at points D4, E3, E4, and G3. Head for any of these locations even before Edgardo pinpoints the enemies to find and destroy them quickly.

TIP

AS SOON AS EDGARDO TELLS YOU TO BEGIN THIS LAST SECTION OF THE MISSION, YOU HAVE THREE MINUTES TO DESTROY EVERY ENEMY IF YOU WANT TO COMPLETE THE EXTRA OPERATION FOR THE MISSION. THE MOST EFFICIENT WAY TO DO THAT IS TO COMPLETELY ERADICATE EACH GROUP OF FOES BEFORE GOING AFTER THE NEXT ONE. THAT WAY, YOU'RE NOT STUCK HUNTING DOWN STRAGGLERS AS THE CLOCK KEEPS TICKING.

SOLDIER MISSION 2: WIPE OUT REBELS

UPSTREAM OF GORGE

- TIME ELAPSED
- ENEMIES DESTROYED
- AVERAGE ATTACK DISTANCE

EXTRA OPERATIONS

- ENEMY ANNIHILATED (ALL ENEMIES DESTROYED) (1,000 POINTS)
- ALLIED SCOUT SURVIVES (1,000 POINTS)

TO EARN AN S RANKING FOR THIS MISSION, YOU MUST EARN AT LEAST 3,000 POINTS. COMPLETING THE MISSION UNLOCKS:

- GENERATOR RFZ-GE-A1
- EARNING AN S RANKING UNLOCKS:
- COCKPIT RFZ-CK-A3

Your squad leader for this mission (and every subsequent soldier mission) is Silvy Bernard. At the start of the mission, she deploys scouts to capture the COMBAS towers F and G. Follow the scout who heads north to COMBAS F and attack the enemies to the northeast (point G3) as you do to cover the scout.

TIP

IF THE SCOUT SURVIVES UNTIL THE END OF THE MISSION, YOU COMPLETE THE "ALLIED SCOUT SURVIVES" EXTRA OPERATION.

At Silvy's command, head northeast through the valley, zigzagging as you go to avoid enemies lying in ambush. Destroy enemies as you progress to the river at point F4. From point F4, follow the river northwest.

Watch your radar to pinpoint nearby enemies, but remember that enemies only show up on the radar when they're moving or just after they've fired. Use your weapon cam to pick off distant enemies, but switch back to normal view and use evasive maneuvers if you start taking too much fire.

When you reach the enemy's base camp, destroy every structure within it to complete the mission. Use your weapon slot 3 rockets to bring down the buildings and do splash damage to nearby defenders. You can also target the red explosive barrels lying around the camp to blow them up and cause more damage.

DESTROY EVERY STANDING STRUCTURE IN THE ENEMY'S BASE CAMP TO COMPLETE THE MISSION.

TIP

IF YOU DESTROY EVERY ENEMY IN THE BASE CAMP AND HAVE DESTROYED EVERY ENEMY YOU'VE SEEN ALONG THE WAY (EXCEPT FOOT SOLDIERS), YOU COMPLETE THE "ENEMY ANNIHILATED" EXTRA OPERATION.

SOLDIER MISSION 3: WIPE OUT REBELS 2

- TIME ELAPSED
- ENEMIES DESTROYED
- AVERAGE ATTACK DISTANCE

EXTRA OPERATIONS

- HALT ENEMY BEFORE F4 (1,000 POINTS)
- NO DAMAGED PARTS (1,000 POINTS)

TO EARN AN S RANKING FOR THIS MISSION, YOU MUST EARN AT LEAST 3,000 POINTS. COMPLETING THE MISSION UNLOCKS:

- MACHINE GUN RFZ-WMG-3
- EARNING AN S RANKING UNLOCKS:
- BOMB DISPENSER RFZ-WBD-1

The objective of this mission is simple: There is an enemy vehicle (designated "Mouse") to the southwest trying to make a getaway. You must follow it, disable it, and catch up to it before it escapes to complete the objective.

Of course, it's not that easy. Along the way, you face fierce opposition from enemies positioned along the escape route. The trick is to never let your desire to destroy these enemies cost you a shot at Mouse. Ignore as many enemies as possible and concentrate on pursuing and destroying Mouse to the exclusion of everything else.

If you follow this strategy, you should stop Mouse before point F4 and complete the extra operation "halt enemy before F4." You should also complete the mission before taking too much damage, which awards you the "no damaged parts" extra operation bonus.

CAUTION

THE EXCEPTIONS TO THIS RULE ARE THE QUADRUPEDAL ACVS AT POINT E4, AT THE END OF THE STEEP TUNNEL. IF YOU DON'T DESTROY THEM, THEY TAKE YOU APART IN NO TIME.

SOLDIER MISSION 4: WIPE OUT REBELS 3

DISABLE MOUSE BY BLASTING IT, AND CATCH UP TO IT TO COMPLETE THE MISSION.

It is very challenging to score an S ranking in this mission. In fact, it's virtually impossible to do it without achieving both extra operations, which requires you to complete the entire mission in less than five minutes and avoid enemy fire so that you suffer no damaged parts. Here's the best way to do it:

From the start, proceed northeast down the forked road. Shoot the two tanks that appear on the northeast fork of the road in front of you and two more that appear from the eastern fork of the road. Turn south and eradicate the quadrupedal sniper ACV and tanks around COMBAS G at point F3. Destroying all of these enemies ensures that Silvy survives to the end of the battle. If she takes too much damage, the mission is scrubbed, so make this your first priority.

Move quickly toward COMBAS G, zigzagging as you do. A heavily armored quadrupedal ACV lobbs mortars at you from the north. Ignore it, and don't bother capturing the COMBAS either, no matter what Silvy says. Both of these actions are unnecessary wastes of time.

DESTROY ALL OF THE ENEMIES AROUND THE STARTING LOCATION SO THAT SILVY MAKES IT TO THE END OF THE MISSION.

From point F3, continue moving southeast through the wide gap in the mountain range at point G3. Be ready for the massed enemy tanks and ACVs that lie in wait ahead. Destroy the heavily armored quadrupedal ACV that waits at the gap, then target the two lighter quadrupedal sniper ACVs on the hill to the south, and then take out the dozen or so tanks that are left. Keep moving at all times to keep from getting caught in crossfire.

TIP

IF YOU STAND JUST NORTH OF THE HIGHEST POINT OF THE GAP, MOST OF THE TANKS CANNOT ELEVATE THEIR CANNONS HIGH ENOUGH TO HIT YOU.

IGNORE THE TANKS UNTIL YOU TAKE OUT THOSE SNIPERS!

As soon as the enemies at the G3 gap are eradicated, move southeast as quickly as you can down the hill. When you reach level ground, head for the bridge to the east and zigzag as you do to avoid enemy tank fire. Don't return fire until you cross the bridge, as most of the tanks won't hit you anyway, and the ones that do won't do much damage. Once you're on the other side of the bridge, open up on the nearest defending tanks, but don't stop moving toward the enemy base.

THE OTHER REASON TO HOLD YOUR FIRE UNTIL YOU CROSS THE BRIDGE IS TO AVOID ACCIDENTALLY BLOWING IT UP. IF THE BRIDGE IS DESTROYED, YOU HAVE TO WADE ACROSS THE RIVER AND RUN THE RISK OF GETTING PINNED DOWN BY ENEMY FIRE AS YOU DO. WADING ACROSS THE RIVER ALSO COSTS YOU VALUABLE SECONDS.

The enemy base is the walled compound to the northeast. It does not include the town north of that. The edges of the base are lined with highly explosive refineries that make very pretty explosions when hit with a rocket or two from weapon slot 3. The exploding refineries also destroy nearby enemies and take out a few other buildings as well, so definitely focus on hitting them first.

SHOOT THE REFINERIES WITH ROCKETS TO BLOW THEM UP AND INFLICT SEVERE DAMAGE ON THE ENEMY BASE.

As soon as the refineries are destroyed, circle-strafe around the perimeter of the base and decimate the buildings with rockets. Ignore any defending enemies altogether unless you can hit them at the same time as you're hitting a building. You don't have to destroy every last building in the base to complete the objective, so don't worry about methodically flattening them all. Just keep moving to avoid enemy fire and pump rockets into anything taller than rubble until Silvy declares the mission a success.

WEST CALE PLAINS

- TIME ELAPSED
- ENEMIES DESTROYED
- AVERAGE ATTACK DISTANCE

EXTRA OPERATIONS

- ALL ALLIED UNITS SURVIVE (1,000 POINTS)
- NO DAMAGE TO SILVY'S ACV (1,000 POINTS)

TO EARN AN S RANKING FOR THIS MISSION, YOU MUST EARN AT LEAST 3,000 POINTS. COMPLETING THE MISSION UNLOCKS:

- BOMB DISPENSER RFZ-WBD-2
- EARNING AN S RANKING UNLOCKS:
- WHEELED CHASSIS RFZ-WL-2

From the start of this mission, stay with the rest of your squad as you move toward the enemies at D8 and F7. Because the rest of the squad members are snipers, they stop well short of the enemies and blast at them from a distance. While they do, you must go on ahead and hunt down and destroy both groups of enemies.

DON'T GET TOO CLOSE TO THE ENEMIES! YOUR SNIPERS ARE PRETTY ACCURATE, BUT EVEN THEY CAN MISS, AND WHEN THE ENEMIES ARE LOBBING MORTARS, THEY'RE GOING TO INFLICT SOME SERIOUS DAMAGE.

Once Silvy confirms the destruction of all enemy units at points D8 and F7, it's on to the next group. If you look west, you should see your snipers and the enemy's long-range cannons exchanging mortar fire. Follow the road northwest, blasting enemy ACVs as you go.

SHOOT ENEMY TANKS FROM A DISTANCE TO AVOID SUFFERING FRIENDLY MORTAR FIRE.

TIP

BOTH OF YOUR EXTRA OPERATION BONUSES DEPEND UPON YOU DESTROYING THE ENEMIES BEFORE THEY CAN DAMAGE OR DESTROY YOUR ALLIED UNITS. SO WHILE YOU SHOULD TAKE FULL ADVANTAGE OF THE COVER FIRE THAT THE SNIPERS OFFER YOU, MAKE SURE THAT YOU ROLL UP TO ENEMIES WITH GUNS A-BLAZING TO DRAW THEIR ATTENTION—AND THEIR FIRE—AWAY FROM YOUR ALLIES.

Move to point G6. Turn west and use your weapon cam to locate and destroy the quadrupedal long-range cannon. Proceed to point G5 to find two more long-range cannons hiding among the buildings of the settlement. While their attention is diverted by your snipers, sneak up and fire rockets at the cannons to obliterate them.

BLAST THE THREE QUADRUPEDAL LONG-RANGE CANNONS NEAR POINT G5.

Silvy says that the next enemies (three quadrupedal long-range cannons) are at point I3, but they're closer to F3, hidden among the trees surrounding a small settlement. If you follow the road southwest, you encounter a small group of tanks at point H3. Destroy them and head up to F3 to wipe out the cannons.

ONCE AGAIN, KEEP YOUR DISTANCE FROM THE ENEMIES AT F3. YOUR SNIPERS ARE ALSO BE LOBBING MORTARS THEIR WAY.

TIP

IF YOU RUN IN CIRCLES AROUND THE LONG-RANGE CANNONS AT F3, YOU MIGHT GET THEM TO SHOOT EACH OTHER ACCIDENTALLY WHILE THEY'RE TRYING TO HIT YOU.

Look southwest to find another lone quadrupedal cannon atop a rocky ridge. Blast it into scrap to complete the mission. If you managed to keep all of your allies intact, and if Silvy's ACV has suffered no damage, you should easily earn the S ranking.

SOLDIER MISSION 6: DEFEND TARAKIAN BASE 2

- TIME ELAPSED
- ENEMIES DESTROYED
- AVERAGE ATTACK DISTANCE

EXTRA OPERATIONS

- NO DESTROYED PARTS
- NO DAMAGE TO SILVY'S ACV

TO EARN AN S RANKING FOR THIS MISSION, YOU MUST EARN AT LEAST 3,000 POINTS. COMPLETING THE MISSION UNLOCKS:

- ASSAULT RIFLE RFZ-WAR-2 (1,000 POINTS)
- EARNING AN S RANKING UNLOCKS:
- HEAT ROCKET RFZ-WHT-2 (1,000 POINTS)

Your primary objective in this mission is to destroy the enemy base at point H6, but that won't do you any good if your allied base at B1 is destroyed. So your first priority is to head west toward B1 and destroy the quadrupedal enemy ACVs assaulting your base. You should have no trouble distinguishing friend from foe—aim at the ACVs that are shooting at the base.

TIP

KEEPING ENEMIES AWAY FROM YOUR BASE ALSO PREVENTS SILVY'S ACV FROM TAKING DAMAGE, WHICH IN TURN COMPLETES THE "NO DAMAGE TO SILVY'S ACV" EXTRA OPERATION GOAL.

Once you have cleared the enemies from the area around your base, start walking south along the paved road. Be prepared to destroy waves of bipedal ACVs as they march up the road toward your base. Destroying every ACV that advances north along the road ensures that your allied base will be spared enemy attacks as you advance on the enemy base.

AS YOU MOVE SOUTH TOWARD THE ENEMY BASE, DESTROY ALL ENEMIES MOVING NORTH ALONG THE ROAD.

The ridges of the hills that line the road are manned by enemy sniper ACVs. As unnerving as it is to have mortar shells exploding around you, don't spend much time trying to pick them off; just zigzag to dodge their fire and keep moving south. Attacking them distracts you from picking off enemies advancing on your base and wastes valuable ammunition that you're going to need later.

Follow the road until you reach point H6. Destroy the ACVs around the enemy base and start pounding the base with your heaviest weapons. The grenades in weapon slot 4 are slow to deploy, but they're extremely destructive, so dump them onto the base whenever they're available. While you're waiting for them to recharge, hit the base with the rockets from weapon slot 3.

The enemy base can withstand a phenomenal amount of damage, so keep moving to dodge enemy sniper fire and keep pummeling the base. At the same time, keep an eye out for additional ACVs coming up the road from the south and destroy them as they approach. This prevents them from assaulting your home base. Eventually—even if it doesn't seem like it while you're blasting it—the enemy base will fall, and the mission will be completed.

DESTROYING THE ENEMY BASE AUTOMATICALLY AWARDS YOU THE "ENEMY HQ DESTROYED" EXTRA OPERATIONS BONUS.

SOLDIER MISSION 7: MOP UP REBEL SURVIVORS

SOUTH BATH PLAINS

- TIME ELAPSED
- ENEMIES DESTROYED
- AVERAGE ATTACK DISTANCE

EXTRA OPERATIONS

- NO DAMAGED PARTS (1,000 POINTS)
- ENEMY HOUND 1 DESTROYED IN UNDER 3 MINUTES (1,000 POINTS)
- ENEMY ANNIHILATED IN UNDER 5 MINUTES (1,000 POINTS)

TO EARN AN S RANKING FOR THIS MISSION, YOU MUST EARN AT LEAST 3,000 POINTS. COMPLETING THE MISSION UNLOCKS:

- HEAT ROCKET RFZ-WHT-1
 - TARAKIAN NATIONAL SECURITY CAMO PATTERN
- EARNING AN S RANKING UNLOCKS:
- ANTI-HOUND PILE RFZ-WHP-1

The final mission in the soldier campaign requires you to eradicate the last of the enemy rebel resistance you've been chasing for the entire campaign. It's also your first battle against an enemy Hound—or two of them, to be exact. This mission will push your skills as a soldier RT to the very limit.

TIP

TO ACHIEVE S RANKING ON THIS MISSION, YOU NEED TO ACCOMPLISH AT LEAST TWO OF THE THREE EXTRA OPERATIONS. THE EASIEST TWO TO ACCOMPLISH ARE "NO DAMAGED PARTS" AND "ENEMY HOUND 1 DESTROYED IN UNDER 3 MINUTES."

First things first: Advance southwest along the southern bank of the river. Keep a sharp eye out for the half-dozen enemy tanks that appear near the settlement and destroy them with weapon slot 1, your most accurate weapon at long ranges.

When you reach the settlement, cross over to the northern bank of the river and be ready for your first Hound battle against Elsa Alcott as you round the river bend after the settlement. Elsa's Hound is fast and maneuverable enough to flank you, so once you close the distance between you and her Hound, don't use your weapon cam during this fight. Start by peppering her with weapon slot 1's gunfire while you close the distance, zigzagging as you do. Switch to weapon slot 3's rockets and unload on her until her relatively lightly armored Hound is destroyed.

DESTROY THE TANKS NEAR THE SETTLEMENT BEFORE YOU COME INTO THEIR RANGE.

TIP

WHENEVER POSSIBLE, ATTACK ELSA FROM HIGH GROUND AND KEEP CIRCLE-STRAFING AROUND HER, CHANGING DIRECTION RANDOMLY TO PREVENT HER FROM DRAWING A BEAD ON YOU.

CAUTION

DO NOT MOVE FARTHER SOUTHWEST DURING THE FIGHT! DOING SO TRIGGERS THE APPEARANCE OF FRANCO GILARDINO'S HOUND, AND THE ONLY THING WORSE THAN FIGHTING ONE HOUND IS HAVING TO DEAL WITH TWO!

CLOSE IN QUICKLY ON ELSA AND HIT HER WITH ROCKETS WHILE CIRCLE-STRAFING AROUND HER.

some rounds from weapon slot 1, and be ready to dodge his missiles as he roars into action.

Franco's Hound has much thicker armor and considerably more firepower, but it's also much slower and less maneuverable than Elsa's. Use this to your advantage. Aim your weapon slot 3 weapon cam slightly above him and send a volley of missiles his way.

Continue dropping missiles on him until he starts to return fire, and then dodge his incoming missiles while returning fire.

FRANCO'S HOUND HAS THICKER ARMOR AND MORE FIREPOWER THAN ELSA'S, BUT HE PAYS FOR IT WITH REDUCED SPEED AND MOBILITY.

TIP

IF YOU DAMAGE FRANCO'S CHASSIS, YOU CAN CIRCLE-STRAFE AROUND HIM TOO QUICKLY FOR HIM TO ROTATE HIS WEAPONS TO FACE YOU.

Franco's Hound can take a pounding, and his missiles inflict splash damage even on near misses. But if you can keep the high ground and continue circle-strafing around him, changing direction frequently to prevent him from locking on to you, you should be able to put him down for the count without too much trouble.

COMPLETING THIS MISSION AWARDS YOU THE SOLDIER MEDAL. FOR A LIST OF ALL MEDALS AND HOW TO UNLOCK THEM, SEE THE APPENDIX AT THE END OF THIS GUIDE.

SNIPER MISSION 1: SNIPER TRAINING

- TIME ELAPSED
- ACCURACY

- OVER 70 PERCENT ACCURACY (1,000 POINTS)

TO EARN AN S RANKING FOR THIS MISSION, YOU MUST EARN AT LEAST 3,000 POINTS. COMPLETING THE MISSION UNLOCKS:

- STANDARD TARAKIAN CAMO

EARNING AN S RANKING UNLOCKS:

- SPACER RFZ-ASP-2

As with every RT campaign, the first mission in the sniper campaign is a training mission that takes place on the Rafzakael test field. Edgardo Gilardino is once again your instructor. Your first objective is to switch to your weapon cam and destroy the seven tanks to the north with any of your three weapons.

TIP

ACCURACY COUNTS HEAVILY TOWARD YOUR RANKING SCORE IN THIS MISSION, MUCH MORE THAN HOW QUICKLY YOU CAN COMPLETE THE MISSION. AIM CAREFULLY AND MAKE SURE THAT EVERY SHOT YOU FIRE HITS A TARGET.

Once all seven tanks are destroyed, switch out of your weapon cam and walk north to the pylon on the ridge of the hill at point D7. Turn west and switch to your weapon cam to see four quadrupedal ACVs on the slope of a distant hill. Once again, use carefully aimed shots to destroy them all.

Next, move northwest to point B6, labeled with the number 4 on your in-game map. Stand next to COMBAS B and turn northwest. Watch the edge of the hill for the appearance of two bipedal ACVs.

Unlike your targets in the first two objectives, the ones in this objective not only move, they also fire back at you.

WHEN SHOOTING AT THE STATIONARY TARGETS, TAKE YOUR TIME AND AIM CAREFULLY TO IMPROVE YOUR ACCURACY SCORE.

TIP

TO INCREASE YOUR ACCURACY, TRACK THE ACVS UNTIL THEY STOP IN FRONT OF YOU. THEIR SMALL ARMS FIRE ISN'T PARTICULARLY DAMAGING TO YOUR HOUND, AND YOU DON'T SUFFER ANY RANKING SCORE PENALTY FOR TAKING DAMAGE. YOU WILL HOWEVER DECREASE YOUR AVERAGE ATTACK DISTANCE IF YOU WAIT FOR THE ACVS TO DRAW NEAR AND STOP BEFORE FIRING AT THEM.

DON'T WORRY ABOUT TAKING FIRE FROM THE ACVS. THEIR SHOTS AREN'T VERY DAMAGING OR ACCURATE.

The next two ACVs come at you from due north. Destroy them in the same manner. Turn northeast and pick off the final two ACVs to complete the mission.

SNIPER MISSION 2: BORDER PATROL

WEST INDUSTRIAL ZONE

- TIME ELAPSED
- ACCURACY
- AVERAGE ATTACK DISTANCE

EXTRA OPERATIONS

- GENERATOR RFZ-GE-B1

EARNING AN S RANKING UNLOCKS:

- SYSTEM DEVICE RFZ-TC-2

This is the first combat mission of the sniper campaign. Your squad leader is Jayrus Cole, and your tactics commander is Wat Mayer. From the start of the mission, proceed north and take up a sniping position at the highest point of the hill at point F4.

Once you're in position, turn east and zoom in with your weapon cam to find two bipedal ACVs and five tanks. Jayrus tells you to wait for his signal before attacking, but you don't need to do so. Destroy the ACVs with rockets from weapon slot 1 and the tanks with rounds from weapon slot 2. The enemies won't return fire until Jayrus sends up the illuminating flare, so if you're quick about it, you can destroy them all before they know what's going on.

DO NOT ATTACK THE BIPEDAL ACVS THAT WALK INTO YOUR FIELD OF VIEW FROM THE EAST. THESE ARE FRIENDLY UNITS!

TIP

IF THE LONG PIPELINE GETS IN THE WAY OF YOUR SHOT, SHOOT A COUPLE OF ITS SUPPORT STRUCTURES TO BRING IT CRASHING DOWN.

As soon as the first group of enemies is destroyed, move north and take up a sniping position. Use your weapon cam to find six more tanks and two more bipedal ACVs at point C4. Use the same tactics as last time to destroy them all before Jayrus sends up his flare, and they won't fire a single shot.

DESTROY THE ACVS AND TANKS NEAR THE PIPELINE BEFORE JAYRUS SENDS UP HIS FLARE, AND THEY WON'T EVEN GET A SHOT OFF.

THERE ARE SEVERAL MORE STATIONARY ENEMIES AT POINT C4. DESTROY THEM ALL TO COMPLETE THE MISSION.

TIP

DESTROYING ALL ENEMIES BEFORE THE FLARES GO UP IS IMPORTANT IF YOU'RE TRYING TO EARN THE "NO DAMAGE TO JAYRUS'S HOUND" EXTRA OPERATION BONUS. JAYRUS CAN'T SUFFER ANY DAMAGE IF THE ENEMIES NEVER FIRE A SHOT!

From the start of the mission, move south down the road in front of you. When you come to the crest of the hill, move to the right side of the road and be ready to destroy the enemy units advancing up the hill to the south from point E3. Don't bother using your weapon cam on them, as the range is so short and their numbers are so great. Start with a couple of rockets from weapon slot 1, quickly fire off a blast from weapon slot 2, and then switch to the fast-reloading weapon slot 3 to finish them.

THE ENEMIES AT POINT E3 ARE AT SUCH CLOSE RANGE WHEN YOU ENCOUNTER THEM THAT THERE'S NO NEED FOR YOUR WEAPON CAM.

destroy. If you can take them out before Jayrus and the rest of the squad arrive to secure the COMBAS at point H5, you can prevent your allies from taking unnecessary damage.

TIP

SHOOT THE REFINERIES AND LARGE, ROUND OIL TANKS TO BLOW THEM UP AND DESTROY NEARBY ENEMIES. DO THIS BEFORE YOUR ALLIES SHOW UP, TO AVOID INJURING JAYRUS AND COMPANY.

Once all enemies in the settlement are destroyed, quickly advance through the settlement's northeast corner and move southeast as fast as you can. The squad advances ahead of you to the southeast and quickly comes under enemy fire. Snipe their attackers from a distance to provide cover fire.

BLOWING UP THE REFINERIES AND OIL TANKS NOT ONLY LOOKS GREAT, IT ALSO TAKES OUT NEARBY ENEMIES.

TIP

AS LONG AS YOU AND YOUR ALLIES DESTROY EVERY LAST ENEMY UNIT DURING THE COURSE OF THIS MISSION, YOU EARN THE "ENEMY ANNIHILATED" EXTRA OPERATION BONUS.

The enemy headquarters is located at point I7. After you eradicate all of its defenders, shoot the oil tank next to it to inflict heavy damage upon it, and then join your squad in pumping shot after shot into it until it is destroyed. This completes the mission.

Your first objective in this mission is to take up a sniping position and pick off enemies as they drive west along the road below you. There are two sniping posts to choose from: facing left at point D4 or facing west from point E3. D4 is closer to your starting position and gives you a generous field of view, so you should be able to take care of business from there.

Once you're in position, face north and wait patiently for the enemies to pass by. Wat Mayer keeps you posted on their progress as they travel along the road. Once he announces that they are at point C6, you should have a shot at them.

TIP

DESTROY EVERY ENEMY BEFORE THEY MAKE IT TO POINT D2 TO EARN AN EXTRA OPERATION BONUS.

IF ANY ENEMIES GET BY YOU, THE REST OF YOUR SQUAD HAS TO TAKE CARE OF THEM. THEY CAN HANDLE THE RELATIVELY WEAK SCOUTS, BUT THE BIPEDAL ACVS WILL GIVE THEM A HARD TIME AND POSSIBLY JEOPARDIZE YOUR CHANCE OF GETTING THE "ALL ALLIED UNITS SURVIVE" EXTRA OPERATION BONUS.

The first seven enemies are bipedal ACVs, which are followed by five fast-moving scouts. The last enemy units are three large trucks carrying bipedal ACVs. Hit the trucks with everything you've got to destroy them and their cargo. Once all enemies are destroyed, the mission is complete.

DESTROYING THE CARRIER TRUCKS ALSO DESTROYS THE ACVS THAT THEY'RE HAULING.

The first part of this mission requires you to assist your squad in destroying three waves of enemy attackers. First, get yourself into position. While the rest of your squad charges north to deal with a group of enemy scouts, move west up onto the nearby hillside to get a good sniping position.

SNIPE THE SCOUTS AND ACVS TO THE NORTH FROM THE HILL WEST OF YOUR STARTING POSITION.

Once in position, support your squad with cover fire and help destroy the scouts. Do the same for the pair of bipedal ACVs that appear to the north behind the scouts.

USE YOUR HEAVIEST WEAPONS AGAINST THE ACVS THAT COME OVER THE HILL TO THE EAST.

As soon as you destroy the ACVs, turn east quickly to target the wave of five bipedal ACVs. Taking them out quickly is the key to completing both of your extra operations. Make sure that they don't destroy any of your allies or damage any of your Hound's parts if you want to earn those bonuses.

DESTROY ALL ENEMIES ATTACKING YOUR BASE AT POINT I5.

As soon as the last bipedal ACV is destroyed, move south to the walled sniping post at point H6, sniping the enemy scouts that assault your base as you do. Support your allied troops and pick off all enemies as they attack your base. Once the last enemy is destroyed, the mission is complete.

SNIPER MISSION 6: ASSAULT ENEMY BASE 2

EXTRA OPERATIONS

- NEVER HIT ANY FRIENDLIES (1,000 POINTS)
- ALLIED DETACHMENT LIVES (1,000 POINTS)

TO EARN AN S RANKING FOR THIS MISSION, YOU MUST EARN AT LEAST 3,000 POINTS. COMPLETING THE MISSION UNLOCKS:

This is a short mission, but the action is fast and furious. Your goal is to destroy two detachments of enemy ACVs and tanks, one of which heads southwest along a road toward squad 2 of your allies. The other goes northwest along the other fork of the road toward squad 1 of your allies.

NOTE

SQUAD 2 IS EXPENDABLE, BUT IF IT IS WIPED OUT, YOU WILL NOT EARN THE "ALLIED DETACHMENT LIVES" EXTRA OPERATION BONUS. IF SQUAD 1 IS DESTROYED, HOWEVER, THE MISSION IS A FAILURE.

Start by moving southeast so that you can see both forks of the road and the enemies advancing along them. Begin blasting away at the enemies moving southwest toward squad 2. Inflict as much damage on them in the shortest time as you possibly can.

TIP

ACCURACY IS ALWAYS IMPORTANT FOR A SNIPER, BUT IN A HIGH-PRESSURE SITUATION LIKE THIS, IT'S MORE IMPORTANT TO UNLOAD AS MANY SHOTS AS YOU CAN, EVEN IF IT MEANS SACRIFICING SOME ACCURACY.

Once you have destroyed all of the quadrupedal ACVs advancing on squad 2, quickly train your sights on the enemies moving northwest toward squad 1. Again, focus on the quadrupedal ACVs first, as they are the most heavily armored and have the greatest firepower. Continue blasting away at the enemies until they are all destroyed and the mission is complete.

START BY ATTACKING THE ENEMY DETACHMENT THAT ADVANCES ON SQUAD 2.

FOCUS YOUR ATTACKS ON THE QUADRUPEDAL ACVs FIRST. THEIR ARMOR IS HEAVIEST AND THEIR FIREPOWER IS STRONGEST.

From your starting position, face southeast and aim down at the enemy ACVs on the road below. Take care not to hit your three allied ACVs as they advance toward the enemy.

Long-range cannon fire prevents your allies from advancing any farther up the road. Without moving from your starting position, look at the mountain ridge in front of you. Pinpoint the cannon by watching for its fire. Zoom in with your weapon cam and destroy the cannon.

Proceed south up the snowy mountain slope to find three more long-range cannons on the mountain ridge to the south. As before, use your weapon cam to target them and pick them off.

THE FIRST LONG-RANGE CANNON IS ON THE MOUNTAIN RIDGE DIRECTLY IN FRONT OF YOU FROM YOUR STARTING POSITION.

KEEP MOVING TO AVOID THE CANNON FIRE. ONCE YOU START SHOOTING, IT WON'T TAKE THEM LONG TO GET YOUR RANGE.

After destroying all of the long-range cannons, move to the eastern edge of the peak at point F4 and face east. The enemy tactics commander's location is marked with the number 1 on your in-game map. Line the pointer that represents your Hound up with the "1" and close your map. Look toward the bottom of the tree line, and you should see the enemy tactics commander hiding among the evergreens. Snipe him and destroy him.

With the tactics commander destroyed, move to the southeast edge of the mountain range and aim east along the road in the distance to see several enemy scouts and an enemy Hound appear.

Don't worry about the scouts—fire at the Hound as soon as you have a shot and keep blasting away at him.

THE ENEMY TACTICS COMMANDER HIDES IN THE TREE LINE JUST NORTH OF THE COMBAS TOWER IN THE DISTANCE.

TIP

IF YOU CAN DESTROY THE HOUND IN LESS THAN THREE MINUTES, YOU COMPLETE ONE OF THE EXTRA OPERATION BONUSES.

THE ENEMY HOUND ATTACKS AND DISABLES JAYRUS'S HOUND. YOU CANNOT PREVENT THIS.

Don't come down from the mountain range. Higher ground is your greatest advantage in this fight. The enemy Hound can take a phenomenal amount of damage, and he can dish it out as well, so don't draw near enough to give him the advantage of accuracy. Once the enemy Hound and scouts are destroyed, the mission is complete.

As with every other RT campaign, the first mission in the defender campaign is a training mission that takes place on the Rafzakael test field. From your starting point, face south and destroy the three bipedal ACVs that advance toward you. They do not return fire, so take this opportunity to try out your Hound's weapons systems.

Once you've destroyed all three ACVs, proceed south to confront the quadrupedal ACVs at point I4. They have long-range mortar capabilities, so if you use your weapon cam, make a special effort to move evasively. When you're zooming in on a target, the smallest movements are exaggerated in your viewfinder, making it look as if you're moving more evasively than you actually are. Fire rockets at them from a distance as you close in on them.

TIP

EVEN THOUGH DEFENDER HOUNDS ARE NOT KNOWN FOR THEIR MANEUVERABILITY, TAKE EVASIVE ACTION AS YOU ADVANCE ON THE ENEMY, TO AVOID THEIR MORTAR FIRE.

The next group of enemies advances from point I6. Several fast-moving scouts and a few bipedal ACVs comprise the group. Your rocket salvo (weapon slot 3) works best against the scouts, while your rockets or shotgun (weapon slots 1 and 2, respectively) make short work of the bipeds.

CLOSE IN ON THE QUADRUPEDAL ACVS AND DESTROY THEM WITH YOUR HEAVIER WEAPONS.

PREVENT THE ENEMIES FROM REACHING YOUR BASE TO EARN THE EXTRA OPERATION BONUS.

As soon as you hear that enemy reinforcements are headed toward the camp from point E1, immediately move to the camp's northwest corner to intercept them, even if some enemies still remain in the southeast corner.

These reinforcements come in the form of five bipedal ACVs.

PROTECT THE NORTH SIDE OF TOWN FROM THE ADVANCING BIPEDEAL ACVs.

Another wave of bipedal ACVs attacks the south side of camp. If you can pick them off from a distance, do so, but be careful not to accidentally destroy any allied ACVs.

TIP

ALL ENEMIES IN THIS MISSION TRY TO ASSAULT THE ALLIED BASE AT POINT H6. YOU CAN ALWAYS FALL BACK TO THIS POSITION AND INTERCEPT THEM THERE, ALTHOUGH THE POTENTIAL FOR FRIENDLY FIRE IS MUCH HIGHER. ALSO, IF ANY ENEMY COMES WITHIN POINT-BLANK DISTANCE OF THE BASE, YOU LOSE THE EXTRA OPERATION BONUS FOR KEEPING THEM AWAY.

The final wave of bipedal enemies comes at you from the north side of camp again and advances toward the base at point H6. If you remained at the north end of camp, you can intercept them as they approach. If you joined the battle at the south end of camp, move to point H6 and then head northwest to intercept them from there.

THE LAST WAVE OF ENEMIES IS ANOTHER GROUP OF BIPEDEAL ACVs THAT ATTACKS FROM THE NORTH.

EAST LAKE ORLOVKA

- TIME ELAPSED
- DAMAGE TAKEN
- ENEMIES DESTROYED

EXTRA OPERATIONS

- HALT ENEMY BEFORE F4 (1,000 POINTS)
- ALL ESCORTEES SURVIVE (1,000 POINTS)

TO EARN AN S RANKING FOR THIS MISSION, YOU MUST EARN AT LEAST 3,000 POINTS. COMPLETING THE MISSION UNLOCKS:

- SHOTGUN RFZ-WSG-1

- SPACER RFZ-ASP-3

In this mission, you and Grigori must prevent oncoming enemies from getting past you and attacking the defenseless survey team to the northwest. All enemies come at you from the east, either by road or over the water. The first group is four quadrupedal ACVs that advance slowly along the road. Lob your weapon slot 1 rockets at them from a distance; you may need to aim your reticle slightly over them to compensate for the arc of the rockets.

As you blast away at the quadrupeds, a wave of scout ACVs comes up behind them and passes them. As soon as you see them, turn your attention toward them, and pick them off with high-accuracy weapons when they're at a distance. Switch to your weapon slot 3 rocket salvo if they get too close for comfort.

WHEN FIRING ROCKETS AT DISTANT ENEMIES, AIM SLIGHTLY ABOVE THEM TO COMPENSATE FOR THE ROCKETS' ARC.

IF ANY ENEMIES GET BY YOU AND GRIGORI, THEY FIRST ATTEMPT TO GO THROUGH THE TUNNEL AT POINT E4, ONLY TO FIND THAT IT IS BLOCKED. THEY THEN HAVE TO GO DOWN THE ROAD TO THE WEST, ALL THE WAY TO POINT G1. THIS IS YOUR LAST CHANCE TO PICK THEM OFF BEFORE THEY REACH THE SURVEY TEAM.

Resume firing rockets at the quadrupedal ACVs to the east until they are eliminated. Destroy them quickly, because another wave of scout ACVs advances on you along the surface of the water.

TIP

IF YOU EVER HAVE TO CHOOSE BETWEEN DIFFERENT TYPES OF ENEMIES TO ATTACK, ALWAYS ATTACK THE FASTER ONES FIRST. REMEMBER, YOUR SUCCESS IN THIS MISSION DEPENDS UPON KEEPING THE ENEMY FROM REACHING THE SURVEY TEAM. YOU CAN CATCH UP TO A QUADRUPEDAL ACV, BUT SCOUTS CAN EASILY OUTFRAN YOU.

THE SECOND WAVE OF SCOUTS APPROACHES BY WATER.

Another group of slow-moving quadrupedal ACVs approaches from the south. Ignore them until all other enemies have been destroyed, and then take them out using the same strategies you used on the first group.

DEFENDER MISSION 4: ESCORT SURVEY TEAM 2

LAKE ORLOVKA

- TIME ELAPSED
- DAMAGE TAKEN
- ENEMIES DESTROYED

EXTRA OPERATIONS

- ALL ESCORTEES SURVIVE (1,000 POINTS)
- ENEMY ANNIHILATED (1,000 POINTS)

TO EARN AN S RANKING FOR THIS MISSION, YOU MUST EARN AT LEAST 3,000 POINTS. COMPLETING THE MISSION UNLOCKS:

- HEAT SINK RFZ-ARD-1
- EARNING AN S RANKING UNLOCKS:
- ROCKET LAUNCHER RFZ-WRL-1

Your main objective in this mission is to escort the survey team from point G2 to its destination at point B7. Along the way, you are ambushed by several groups of enemies. The first group appears near point G4 and is made up of several scout ACVs and a pair of tanks. Visibility is very poor, so watch for enemy fire to pinpoint their locations.

DO NOT REMAIN DIRECTLY IN FRONT OF YOUR ALLIED ACVS. WHEN THEY SEE AN ENEMY, THEY FIRE AT IT, WHETHER YOU'RE IN THE WAY OR NOT. AND AT POINT-BLANK RANGE, A SALVO OF ROCKETS IN THE BACKSIDE CAN DO SOME SERIOUS DAMAGE TO YOUR HOUND.

The next group of enemies is near point E4, along the ridge of the hill. The first ones you encounter are some scout ACVs that come down at you from the hill to the north. They are supported by quadrupedal ACVs with long-range cannons.

VISIBILITY IS EXTREMELY POOR, SO USE ENEMY FIRE TO FIND WHERE YOUR FOES ARE HIDING.

Continue moving east to find the next group of foes: some scouts and more long-range cannons. While your allies draw their fire and return some of their own, move to flank the enemies. Use your radar and their fire to pinpoint them.

DEFENDER RT HOUNDS HAVE SOME OF THE THICKEST ARMOR AVAILABLE, SO DON'T BE SHY ABOUT WADING INTO THE THICK OF THE FIREFIGHT.

The last group of enemies assaults your allied base at point B7. Starting with the tanks and scouts closest to the base, systematically hunt down and destroy them all, moving out to exterminate the long-range cannons on the periphery of the battlefield. As before, use their fire to pinpoint and destroy them. When you have eradicated all of the enemies, the mission is complete.

SEVERAL QUADRUPEDAL LONG-RANGE CANNONS ARE NEAR THE BASE, SO DON'T STAND STILL.

TIP

DON'T LET YOURSELF BE DRAWN AWAY FROM THE SURVEY TEAM UNTIL YOU ARE SURE THAT THERE ARE NO THREATS IN THEIR IMMEDIATE VICINITY. REMEMBER, THERE'S AN EXTRA OPERATION BONUS TO BE EARNED IF ALL OF YOUR ESCORTEES SURVIVE THE MISSION.

CAUTION

BECAUSE OF THE LIMITED VISIBILITY IN THIS MISSION, FRIENDLY FIRE IS A CONSTANT CONCERN. BE CERTAIN YOUR TARGET IS AN ENEMY BEFORE FIRING. IF YOU'RE UNSURE, WAIT UNTIL THEY SHOOT AT YOU. THE SLIGHT LOSS OF HEALTH IS WORTH IT FOR THE SAKE OF KEEPING YOUR ALLIES INTACT.

DEFENDER MISSION 5: ESCORT SURVEY TEAM 3

LAKE SUHODOL

- TIME ELAPSED
- DAMAGE TAKEN
- ENEMIES DESTROYED

EXTRA OPERATIONS

- NO DAMAGED PARTS (1,000 POINTS)
- ALL ALLIED UNITS SURVIVE (1,000 POINTS)

TO EARN AN S RANKING FOR THIS MISSION, YOU MUST EARN AT LEAST 3,000 POINTS. COMPLETING THE MISSION UNLOCKS:

- SHOTGUN RFZ-WSG-2
- EARNING AN S RANKING UNLOCKS:
- REVERSE JOINT CHASSIS RFZ-RJ-2

The mission starts with you, alone, ambushed by enemy forces. For most of the mission, you're on your own against a seemingly never-ending wave of enemies, so remain in motion to prevent enemies from being able to easily target you, and aim carefully to conserve ammunition.

Start by picking off the bipedal ACVs walking along the road to the northeast. Keep moving toward them, zigzagging as you go, because several enemy snipers are behind them. Use your weapon cam if you want, but be aware that it limits your peripheral vision and makes it more difficult to see flanking enemies.

With the snipers destroyed, turn south and start firing back on the next wave of enemies that appears. Ignore the tanks in favor of eradicating the ACVs first, because the ACVs can inflict a great deal more damage on you if you let them get close.

THE SNIPERS WON'T DO MUCH DAMAGE IF YOU TAKE THEM OUT QUICKLY, BUT THE LONGER IT TAKES YOU, THE WORSE OFF YOU'LL BE.

ARMOR SPECIALIST CAMPAIGN

Close in on the quadrupedal ACVs quickly, because their biggest advantage is being able to lob mortars at you from a distance. If you get close, your weapon slot 3 rocket volley should make short work of them.

CLOSE IN ON THE QUADRUPEDAL ACVS TO DENY THEM THE ADVANTAGE OF LONG-DISTANCE CANNON FIRE.

Pay attention to the radio reports of enemies approaching from C8 and H9, and be ready to meet their attack head on. About one minute after this report of enemy activity, Grigori and the reinforcements show up by train.

TIP

STAY OFF THE TRAIN TRACKS AND THE HILL. OTHERWISE, YOU CAN'T ELEVATE YOUR WEAPONS HIGH ENOUGH TO SHOOT ENEMIES COMING DOWN THE HILL ABOVE YOU.

At this point, hang back under cover and let your allies mop up, taking carefully aimed shots when you have them, or you can stay in the battle and continue blasting away at enemies. Make sure not to aim at anyone whose camo pattern matches your own!

ADJUST YOUR POST-REINFORCEMENT STRATEGY DEPENDING ON THE EXTRA OPERATION BONUSES YOU'RE HOPING TO EARN. IF YOUR HOUND DOES NOT HAVE ANY DAMAGED PARTS, PLAY IT SAFE AND GO FOR THE "NO DAMAGED PARTS" BONUS. IF YOU'RE ALREADY DAMAGED—OR IF YOU'RE IN EXCELLENT SHAPE—FIGHT AGGRESSIVELY AT THE SIDE OF YOUR ALLIES AND TRY TO EARN THE "ALL ALLIED UNITS SURVIVE" BONUS.

- TIME ELAPSED
- DAMAGE TAKEN
- ENEMIES DESTROYED

EXTRA OPERATIONS

- ALL ESCORTEES SURVIVE (1,000 POINTS)
- NO DAMAGED PARTS (1,000 POINTS)

TO EARN AN S RANKING FOR THIS MISSION, YOU MUST EARN AT LEAST 3,000 POINTS. COMPLETING THE MISSION UNLOCKS:

- ARMOR RFZ-AAM-1

EARNING AN S RANKING UNLOCKS:

In this fourth escort mission, you must escort the survey team back to camp. From the mission's start, turn left (east) to find the first wave of foes, which attack from points G5, H7, and C7. Start with the bipedal ACVs at point C7. Draw their fire away from the survey team and destroy them quickly so that the survey team doesn't get too far ahead of you.

TO EARN THE EXTRA OPERATION BONUS "ALL ESCORTEES SURVIVE," DON'T LET THE ENEMY DESTROY ANY OF THE SURVEY TEAM'S TRUCKS, SO DON'T STRAY TOO FAR FROM THEM.

Return to the survey team's trucks and lead them down the road. A wave of scouts appears at point D4 and makes a run for the road. Pick them off before they come within range of the survey team. If they draw too near, draw their fire away from the trucks, and be sure not to fall too far behind the survey team.

DISTRACT THE SCOUTS FROM THE SURVEY TEAM AND DESTROY THEM QUICKLY.

The next wave of enemies, a team of bipedal ACVs, attacks from point E7. Take them out quickly, because enemies at point G4 attempt to block the survey team's path with a train.

TIP

IF YOU FALL BEHIND THE SURVEY TEAM, CATCH UP BY CUTTING THROUGH THE SHALLOW VALLEY NEAR THE ROAD'S HAIRPIN TURN AT POINT F5.

The enemies at point E4 are snipers. Advance on them and fire high-accuracy weapons while moving evasively. Point H5 is at the end of the road. Eradicate the enemies here and protect the survey team to complete the mission.

WIPE OUT THE ENEMIES AROUND POINT H5 TO COMPLETE THE MISSION.

DEFENDER MISSION 7: DEFEND EGER

- TIME ELAPSED
- DAMAGE TAKEN
- ENEMIES DESTROYED

EXTRA OPERATIONS

- NO DAMAGED PARTS (1,000 POINTS)
- TIME SPENT UNDER 5 MINUTES (1,000 POINTS)
- DESTROY TRANSPORT BEFORE STOP (1,000 POINTS)

TO EARN AN S RANKING FOR THIS MISSION, YOU MUST EARN AT LEAST 3,000 POINTS. COMPLETING THE MISSION UNLOCKS:

- ROCKET RFZ-WRL-2
 - MORSKOVIAN ARCTIC COLOR PATTERN
- EARNING AN S RANKING UNLOCKS:
- MISSILE LAUNCHER RFZ-WMS-1

Upon returning to Eger, the same camp you arrived at in mission 2, you find it under siege by enemy forces intent on destroying the base at point E7. If the base falls, the mission is a failure, which means this mission is similar to mission 2, except for the fact that the enemy forces are much more overwhelming.

Roll east down the road as fast as you can and make a beeline for the hill at E2. This vantage point gives you an excellent opportunity to destroy enemies as they march through the camp toward the base. Fire at all enemies you see as soon as they're in range, but be extra careful not to target allies. The visibility is not great, and most of your weapons do splash damage, so watch out.

START BY PICKING OFF ENEMIES AS THEY MOVE THROUGH THE STREETS TOWARD THE BASE.

After clearing the streets of enemies, head directly for the base at point E7. Take the road, as it allows you the greatest visibility, which means you can pick off enemies at a distance. You should arrive in time to meet and repel a group of bipedal ACVs attacking from point J2.

KEEP AN EYE OUT FOR AN ENEMY TRANSPORT TRAIN THAT APPEARS ALONG THE TRACKS. IF YOU DESTROY IT BEFORE IT UNLOADS ITS LETHAL CARGO OF ACVS, YOU EARN THE "DESTROY TRANSPORT BEFORE STOP" BONUS.

Following hot on the heels of the bipeds are several quadrupedal ACVs with heavy armor and long-range cannons. Draw their fire away from the base and let your rockets rip into them. Don't stray too far from the base, though, because another group of bipeds attacks from the camp's north side. Destroy these and any remaining enemies to complete the mission.

THE FINAL WAVE OF BIPEDAL ACVS ATTACKS FROM THE NORTH.

COMPLETING THIS MISSION AWARDS YOU THE DEFENDER MEDAL. FOR A LIST OF ALL MEDALS AND HOW TO UNLOCK THEM, SEE THE APPENDIX AT THE END OF THIS GUIDE.

SCOUT WALKTHROUGH: MOBILITY SPECIALIST CAMPAIGN

SCOUT MISSION 1: SCOUT TRAINING

- TIME ELAPSED
- DAMAGE TAKEN
- COMBAS SECURED

EXTRA OPERATIONS

- NO MINE DAMAGE (1,000 POINTS)

TO EARN AN S RANKING FOR THIS MISSION, YOU MUST EARN AT LEAST 3,000 POINTS. COMPLETING THE MISSION UNLOCKS:

- HOVER CHASSIS RFZ-HL-1
 - STANDARD MORSKOVIAN CAMO
- EARNING AN S RANKING UNLOCKS:
- SENSORS RFZ-ASD-M1

The first scout mission is a training mission set on the Rafzakael test field. Edgardo Gilardino is your instructor once again, and you must follow his orders to complete the mission satisfactorily. Your first objective is to proceed northwest from your starting point to COMBAS F at point G2 and capture it by remaining in close proximity to it for several seconds. This extends the range of the network area (NA) and allows you to continue receiving Edgardo's instructions.

SEE WHO CONTROLS A COMBAS BY VIEWING IT ON YOUR IN-GAME MAP OR LOOKING AT THE FLAG ATTACHED TO THE COMBAS ITSELF.

Next, proceed northeast to point F4 and seize COMBAS G, which is currently controlled by enemy forces. Along the way, you get targeted by enemy gun emplacements, but as long as you just keep moving at top speed toward the COMBAS, they can't hit you. When you reach the COMBAS, keep it between you and the gun emplacements to avoid taking fire while you seize it.

TIP

TWO OF THE CATEGORIES THAT YOU'RE EVALUATED IN ARE TIME ELAPSED AND DAMAGE TAKEN. MOVE QUICKLY FROM COMBAS TO COMBAS AND AVOID ENEMY FIRE TO MAXIMIZE YOUR EVALUATION SCORE.

The next objective is to take COMBAS C at point E2, but before you head for it, pull the left trigger to activate the mine detector assist part on your Hound to see that dozens of mines lie between you and COMBAS C. Swing wide around the minefield and the two gun emplacements near COMBAS C as you approach, and then seize COMBAS C.

IGNORE THE GUN EMPLACEMENTS AND KEEP ROLLING TOWARD THE COMBAS. THEY PROBABLY CAN'T HIT YOU, AND IF THEY DO, THEY WON'T DO MUCH DAMAGE.

TIP

AVOIDING ALL OF THE MINES EARNS YOU THE ONLY EXTRA OPERATION BONUS FOR THIS MISSION. IT'S AN EASY OBJECTIVE TO ACCOMPLISH, SO THERE'S NO REASON YOU SHOULDN'T EARN IT.

The final objective is to seize the remaining COMBASs and extend the NA so that Edgardo can locate all targets placed in the test field. The most efficient order for seizing the COMBASs is as follows:

- Proceed east to COMBAS C at point D5.
- Move southeast to COMBAS E at point E6.
- Go northeast to COMBAS B at point C7. Be prepared to avoid enemy fire from the southeast as you go.
- Head northwest to COMBAS A at point B6. Expect enemy fire from the north and northwest as you approach it.

SEIZE THE REMAINING COMBASs AS QUICKLY AS POSSIBLE TO COMPLETE THE MISSION.

SCOUT MISSION 2: INVESTIGATE SPY UNIT

- TIME ELAPSED
- DAMAGE TAKEN
- COMBASS SECURED

EXTRA OPERATIONS

- NO DAMAGED PARTS (1,000 POINTS)
- SECURED ALL COMBASS (1,000 POINTS)

TO EARN AN S RANKING FOR THIS MISSION, YOU MUST EARN AT LEAST 3,000 POINTS. COMPLETING THE MISSION UNLOCKS:

- GENERATOR RFZ-GE-A2
- EARNING AN S RANKING UNLOCKS:
- SYSTEM DEVICE RFZ-MC-2

Irina Verba is your squad leader for this mission, which requires you to capture all unsecured COMBASs in an effort to extend the NA and try to locate a rogue squad that staged a revolt near a friendly base. Start by heading east to COMBAS A at point B2.

NOTE

THERE IS A 15-MINUTE TIME LIMIT FOR THIS MISSION. YOU SHOULD HAVE NO TROUBLE COMPLETING IT WITHIN THE TIME LIMIT, BUT DON'T DAWDLE. THE FASTER YOU COMPLETE THE MISSION, THE MORE POINTS YOU ARE AWARDED IN YOUR MISSION EVALUATION.

After seizing COMBAS A, proceed south to COMBAS B at point E2. Stay out of the water as much as possible to keep your speed up. Approach the COMBAS from its south side so you can gain traction on the steep incline leading up to it.

TIP

TO PREVENT WASTING TIME WHEN SEIZING COMBASS, KEEP YOUR IN-GAME MAP OPEN SO THAT YOU CAN TELL EXACTLY WHEN YOU CAPTURE EACH COMBAS. WHILE WAITING TO CAPTURE A COMBAS, TURN YOUR HOUND TOWARD THE NEXT ONE, SO YOU'RE READY TO GO.

The next COMBAS Irina directs you toward is COMBAS G at point F3 to the southwest. Several gun emplacements are just over the rise of the hill leading up to the COMBAS, so be ready to dodge their fire.

APPROACH COMBAS B FROM THE SOUTH TO SCALE THE STEEP INCLINE LEADING UP TO IT.

TIP

DON'T BOTHER RETURNING FIRE, AS THE GUN EMPLACEMENTS WON'T DO MUCH DAMAGE TO YOUR HOUND, AND YOU DON'T EARN ANY ADDITIONAL EVALUATION POINTS FOR DESTROYING THEM. IN FACT, YOU'LL PROBABLY ONLY TAKE MORE DAMAGE AND SPEND MORE TIME THAN YOU WOULD IF YOU IGNORED THEM, WHICH RESULTS IN A PENALTY TO YOUR EVALUATION SCORE.

When capturing COMBAS G, park between the COMBAS and the small settlement next to it to gain some cover from the gun emplacements. Once the COMBAS is secured, blast through the settlement to drive out to the east, and head for COMBAS H at point F5.

IF YOU'RE ATTEMPTING TO EARN THE "SECURE ALL COMBASS" EXTRA OPERATION BONUS, NOW WOULD BE A GOOD TIME TO HEAD SOUTH AND SECURE COMBAS J AT POINT I3 BEFORE CONTINUING ON TO COMBAS H. HOWEVER, YOU SHOULD BE ABLE TO EARN AN S RATING EVEN WITHOUT THIS BONUS, SO IT'S UP TO YOU WHETHER OR NOT YOU WANT TO MAKE THE EFFORT.

PARK BETWEEN THE COMBAS AND THE SETTLEMENT TO SHIELD YOURSELF FROM THE GUN EMPLACEMENTS.

Another gun emplacement is north of COMBAS H, so approach the COMBAS from the south and keep it between you and the gun emplacement when you capture it. Once you have it, go south until the canyon wall to the east isn't quite as steep. Continue moving east toward your next target, COMBAS I at point F7.

IF YOU'RE TRYING TO CAPTURE ALL COMBASS, GO NORTH NOW AND GET COMBASS F, C, AND D BEFORE PROCEEDING TO COMBAS I.

The final COMBAS you must secure is COMBAS K at point F8 to the southeast. Along the way, three bipedal ACVs attack from point G8. Don't bother returning fire. Use the terrain to your advantage, keeping hills and trees between you and them, and move as quickly as you can to point G8 and the final COMBAS. Position yourself so that the COMBAS stands between you and the ACVs. As soon as the COMBAS is secured, the mission is complete.

KEEP THE COMBAS BETWEEN YOU AND THE ACVs, AND DON'T BOTHER RETURNING FIRE, BECAUSE THE MISSION IS COMPLETE AS SOON AS YOU SEIZE THE COMBAS.

TIP

THE EASIEST WAY TO EARN AN S RANKING FOR THIS MISSION IS TO CAPTURE EVERY COMBAS AS QUICKLY AS POSSIBLE. TO EARN HIGH RATINGS IN THE "TIME ELAPSED" AND "COMBAS SECURED" CATEGORIES. RUN FROM ENEMY FIRE RATHER THAN ENGAGE THE ENEMY TO REDUCE THE RISK OF DAMAGED PARTS, WHICH GIVES YOU AN EXTRA OPERATION BONUS AND BOOSTS YOUR "DAMAGE TAKEN" RATING. AVOIDING DETECTION ALTOGETHER IS DIFFICULT AND TIME CONSUMING, SO CONCENTRATE ON EARNING HIGH SCORES IN ALL OTHER CATEGORIES.

At the start of the mission, activate your Hound's nocturnal sensors to turn on night vision, which helps a great deal in this rainy night mission. Move southwest and capture COMBAS C at point C7, and then move south through the mountain pass and follow the river southeast to reach and secure COMBAS G at point D8.

Capturing COMBAS G reveals an enemy unit at point E8. Go west, back down to the river, and follow it southwest to reach COMBAS J at point G7. There are enemy units on the north side of the river near point E7, so be very careful not to draw their attention.

APPROACHING COMBAS G FROM THE RIVER TO THE WEST KEEPS YOU FROM BEING SPOTTED BY NEARBY ENEMY UNITS.

Return to the river and go northwest to COMBAS F at point E6. After securing the COMBAS, head northwest through the mountain gap and make a beeline for COMBAS B at point B4. There are gun emplacements to the west of COMBAS B at points B4 and C4, so be careful.

CAPTURE COMBAS B, BUT WATCH OUT FOR THE ENEMIES TO THE WEST OF IT.

From COMBAS B, move south to COMBAS E at point E4. Once you've secured the COMBAS, go northwest to COMBAS A at point B1, which is on the other side of a river canyon. The walls of the canyon are less steep to the north of the COMBAS, and you can drive down and up them without suffering damage.

Go back across the river and head due south to COMBAS D at point E1. You need to approach the COMBAS from its west side to be able to scale the slope of the hill it's on. After you secure the COMBAS, go through the mountain gap to the south to reach the southern half of the map. COMBAS H is on the other side of the gap, at point G3.

SCOUT MISSION 3: RESCUE ALLIED FORCES

OLENSK HIGHLANDS

- TIME ELAPSED
- DAMAGE TAKEN
- COMBAS SECURED

EXTRA OPERATIONS

- NO DAMAGED PARTS (1,000 POINTS)
- NEVER SPOTTED BY ENEMY (1,000 POINTS)

TO EARN AN S RANKING FOR THIS MISSION, YOU MUST EARN AT LEAST 3,000 POINTS. COMPLETING THE MISSION UNLOCKS:

- LAND MINE RFZ-WLM-2

EARNING AN S RANKING UNLOCKS:

- NA JAMMER RFZ-AJM-1

The objective of this mission is to seize COMBASs to get the NA up and running so that you can find a squad of special forces troops who were scattered during a recent battle. To complete the bare minimum objectives of the mission, you only need to secure the COMBASs that are near the allied troops:

- COMBAS A (point B1)
- COMBAS E (point E4)
- COMBAS J (point G7)
- COMBAS K (point I1)

Move due east from COMBAS H to reach COMBAS I at point G5 and avoid an enemy signature moving in your direction from Point H3. After securing COMBAS I, go south toward point I6 and COMBAS L. As soon as you secure COMBAS L, go west toward COMBAS K at point I1 to avoid enemies advancing toward you from point I6. Approach COMBAS K and secure it to complete the mission.

CAPTURING COMBAS K COMPLETES THE MISSION.

SCOUT MISSION 4: PURSUE SPY UNIT

- TIME ELAPSED
- DAMAGE TAKEN
- COMBASs SECURED

EXTRA OPERATIONS

- NO DAMAGED PARTS (1,000 POINTS)
- DESTROY ENEMY HOUND IN UNDER 10 MINUTES (1,000 POINTS)

TO EARN AN S RANKING FOR THIS MISSION, YOU MUST EARN AT LEAST 3,000 POINTS. COMPLETING THE MISSION UNLOCKS:

- BOMB DISPENSER RFZ-WBD-1

- SPACER RFZ-ASP-1

This mission tests your ability to lure enemies into ambushes, which is one of the scout's most important roles. From your starting position, move west until you reach the river and follow the river north until you see several enemy scout ACVs. As soon as they advance on you, turn south and lure them back to the ambush point (point D5), where your snipers will destroy them.

TIP

DON'T GET TOO FAR AHEAD OF THEM, OR THEY'LL STOP PURSUING YOU. IF YOU CAN'T SEE THEM ON YOUR RADAR, THEY CAN'T SEE YOU ON THEIRS.

YOU CAN ALSO SHOOT THE ENEMY ACVS YOURSELF, BUT THIS IS GOOD PRACTICE FOR HONING YOUR LURING SKILLS.

After you receive confirmation that the first wave of enemy units has been destroyed, return to the river and go west along it until you see a second wave of enemy scout ACVs advancing from point D3. Once again, draw their attention and lead them back to point D5.

Your next objective is to seize COMBAS E at point E4. To reach it, go east to point C6 and south from there until you reach the top of the hill. Turn west at the top of the hill and approach the COMBAS to secure it.

YOUR SNIPERS MAKE SHORT WORK OF THE ENEMY ACVs ONCE YOU LEAD THEM INTO POSITION.

Now it's time to lure the final group of enemies over to your snipers. This last group includes three bipedal ACVs and an enemy Hound. Search for them near the bottom of the hill to the south and shoot at them to get their attention. Lead them back to the hill pass you approached COMBAS E from, and your snipers start blasting them. Once all four enemies are destroyed, the mission is complete.

LEAD THE ENEMIES BACK OVER THE HILL SO THAT YOUR SNIPERS CAN PICK THEM OFF QUICKLY AND COMPLETE THE MISSION.

CAUTION

DON'T GO TOE-TO-TOE WITH THE HOUND IF YOU CAN HELP IT, ESPECIALLY WHEN YOUR SNIPERS CAN GET THE JOB DONE WITH LITTLE OR NO RISK TO YOU. REMEMBER, AS THE SCOUT IN THIS MISSION, YOUR ROLE IS NOT THAT OF AN ACTIVE COMBATANT. PLUS, YOU GET A SIZABLE EXTRA OPERATION BONUS FOR MAKING IT THROUGH THE MISSION WITH NO DAMAGED PARTS.

SCOUT MISSION 5: ATTACK ENEMY SUPPLY BASE

WEST BAYAZIT RIVER

- TIME ELAPSED
- DAMAGE TAKEN
- COMBAS SECURED

EXTRA OPERATIONS

- NO DAMAGED PARTS (1,000 POINTS)
- ALL ALLIED UNITS SURVIVE (1,000 POINTS)

TO EARN AN S RANKING FOR THIS MISSION, YOU MUST EARN AT LEAST 3,000 POINTS. COMPLETING THE MISSION UNLOCKS:

- MORTAR RFZ-WMT-1

EARNING AN S RANKING UNLOCKS:

- HOVER CHASSIS RFZ-HL-2

Your main objective for this mission is to reach an enemy base and destroy it within five minutes. You have a few ACV snipers backing you up, but they move much more slowly than you, so you're on your own for much of this mission.

Start by going southeast from your starting position and capture COMBAS E at point D7. Stay on the north side of the COMBAS, as there are several enemy ACVs and gun emplacements to the south between you and the enemy encampment.

TIP

TO EARN THE "ALL ALLIES SURVIVE" EXTRA OPERATION BONUS, DESTROY THE TWO ROCKET-FIRING GUN EMPLACEMENTS AND INFLICT AS MUCH DAMAGE ON THE ENEMY ACVS AS POSSIBLE TO SOFTEN THEM UP. DON'T LET YOURSELF TAKE MUCH DAMAGE OR SPEND TOO MUCH TIME ON THIS, OR YOU'LL LOSE POINTS IN OTHER EVALUATION CATEGORIES AND DEFEAT THE PURPOSE OF GOING FOR THE EXTRA OPERATION BONUS.

DESTROY THE ROCKET-FIRING GUN EMPLACEMENTS TO GIVE YOUR ALLIED SNIPERS A FIGHTING CHANCE AT SURVIVAL.

TIP

YOU CAN ALSO SEIZE THE COMBAS WHILE TAKING DOWN THE ENEMIES AND USE IT FOR COVER FROM THEIR RETURN FIRE.

Now it's time to destroy the base itself. With no enemies in the area to distract you, you can quickly and methodically sweep every structure with your weapon slot 1 machine guns. Once you have destroyed the vast majority of the structures, the mission is complete.

THE FUEL DEPOT EXPLOSION QUICKLY INFLECTS HEAVY DAMAGE ON THE SUPPLY BASE.

TIP

BLOW UP THE FUEL DEPOT ON THE BASE'S SOUTHWEST CORNER TO QUICKLY DESTROY AN ENTIRE QUARTER OF THE BASE AT ONCE.

SCOUT MISSION 6: ATTACK ENEMY SUPPLY BASE 2

EAST BAYAZIT RIVER

- TIME ELAPSED
- DAMAGE TAKEN
- COMBASS SECURED

EXTRA OPERATIONS

- NO DAMAGED PARTS (1,000 POINTS)
- ALL ALLIED UNITS SURVIVE (1,000 POINTS)

TO EARN AN S RANKING FOR THIS MISSION, YOU MUST EARN AT LEAST 3,000 POINTS. COMPLETING THE MISSION UNLOCKS:

- MACHINE GUN RFZ-WMG-2

EARNING AN S RANKING UNLOCKS:

In this mission, you are responsible for sending up illuminating flares at strategic points so that your allied snipers can pick off advancing enemy ACVs. In order for your tactical commander to see the enemy coming, however, you need to capture three COMBASSes to extend the NA around your snipers. From your starting position, capture COMBAS I at point F6, then COMBAS H at F4, and finally COMBAS G at G2.

NOTE

THE ENEMIES ALWAYS ATTACK FROM THE SAME POSITIONS, SO USE THIS WALKTHROUGH TO ANTICIPATE WHERE THEY WILL BE, AND GET INTO POSITION EVEN BEFORE THE TACTICAL COMMANDER TELLS YOU WHERE TO GO.

FIRE A FLARE AT POINT G6 TO ALLOW YOUR SNIPERS TO FIND AND SHOOT THE ADVANCING ENEMY.

Once all three COMBASSes have been captured, follow the river near COMBAS G east toward COMBAS I. Cut inland to the east at point H4 and keep going east. The tactical commander tells you that enemy forces are advancing along the northeastern route. Move to point G6 and equip your flares (weapon slot 3). When the squad leader gives the order, aim high up into the sky and fire off a flare to illuminate the area and allow your snipers to pick off the enemy.

Stick around point G4 to send up another flare if necessary. Once all of the enemies have been destroyed, go to point G1 and send up an illuminating flare once you're given the order to do so.

TIP

YOU CAN HELP YOUR SNIPERS BY SHOOTING THE ADVANCING ENEMY ACVS AS WELL, BUT YOUR PRIMARY RESPONSIBILITY IS TO ILLUMINATE THE AREA.

Once this second wave of enemies is destroyed, remain at point G1 to illuminate and obliterate a third wave of ACVs. The fourth wave advances along the northern route; move to point G4 and send up a flare on the squad leader's order. The fifth and final wave comes from the northeast. Move to point G6 and illuminate them for your snipers. Once this last wave of enemies has been destroyed, the mission is complete.

WHY LET YOUR SNIPERS HOG ALL OF THE FUN? YOU CAN SHOOT THE ENEMY ACVS AS WELL.

THIS MISSION IS ONE OF THE EASIEST MISSIONS TO EARN EXTRA OPERATION BONUSES ON. AS LONG AS YOU AVOID TAKING FIRE THAT WOULD DAMAGE YOUR PARTS, AND AS LONG AS YOU ILLUMINATE THE ENEMIES QUICKLY SO THAT YOUR SNIPERS HAVE PLENTY OF TIME TO TAKE THEM OUT WITHOUT SUFFERING RETURN FIRE, YOU'LL GET BOTH BONUSES WITH NO TROUBLE.

The final mission of the scout campaign is also the most dangerous. You must travel along a southern route to an enemy water plant at point H6 and lure away the defenders so that the rest of your squad can attack the plant from the east and destroy it. The enemy presence is huge and strong, so you've got your work cut out for you.

From your starting position, go southwest and secure COMBAS A at point C3. Several tanks are in the area, and four bipedal ACVs advance on you as well. You can outmaneuver all of these enemies, and if you stay in motion and put your machine guns to good use, you can destroy them all without much trouble.

Once the area around COMBAS A is clear, proceed south, either down along the river or through the open plain near COMBAS F and G. The latter route contains more enemies, but this is an area that's in your best interests to clear out anyway, because you may need to retreat to it while you're luring the enemy away from the water plant at H6.

There are several tanks in point G3, a couple of quadrupedal ACVs in point F3, and the enemy tactics commander in point G2. Destroy all of them. Eradicating the tactics commander earns you a quick extra operation bonus, and clearing this area of enemies gives you somewhere to fall back to when luring the defenders away from the water plant.

Now move to seize COMBAS J at point H3. This puts you back within the NA and allows you to hear communications from your squad leader. When you're ready, roll east toward the enemy water plant and start shooting at the defending enemies to get their attention.

DESTROY THE ACVs AND TANKS AROUND COMBAS A.

DESTROY THE ENEMY TACTICAL COMMANDER TO PICK UP AN EXTRA OPERATION BONUS.

Once you destroy a few of the enemies, a black Hound appears. Your squad leader identifies it as a Hound from the legendary Cerberus squad. As soon as the Hound appears, move west to lure it and the rest of the defenders away from the water plant. Once they have all been lured away, your forces attack the water plant. The mission is complete when the water plant is destroyed.

This is much easier said than done. The black Hound is more than a match for you, and if even one defending enemy remains at the plant, your allied forces will not attack. One sneaky strategy is to lure the black Hound all the way to the map's western edge, near where you destroyed the enemy commander, and then give him the slip and head north to return to your starting position.

Once there, go southeast and meet up with your squad to attack the water plant personally. Your weapon slot 2 grenades will do a number on the plant's structures, and if you manage to get the Hound out of the area, you shouldn't have too much trouble destroying any defenders that remain at the plant. Whether you lure the defenders away or destroy them, your allies commence their attack. And even if they never fire a shot, you can destroy the plant yourself and complete the mission.

KICK UP A FUSS AND LURE THE ENEMY AWAY FROM THE WATER PLANT.

IF A DEFENDER OR TWO REFUSES TO MOVE AND PREVENTS YOUR ALLIES FROM ATTACKING, CIRCLE AROUND AND ATTACK THE PLANT YOURSELF.

COMPLETING THIS MISSION AWARDS YOU THE SCOUT MEDAL. FOR A LIST OF ALL MEDALS AND HOW TO UNLOCK THEM, SEE THE APPENDIX AT THE END OF THIS GUIDE.

ESTIMATING DISTANCES

YOUR WEAPON CAM'S RANGE FINDER DISPLAYS THE ESTIMATED DISTANCE AT WHICH YOUR BOMBARDMENT WILL LAND, PROVIDED THAT YOU ARE ON THE SAME LEVEL AS YOUR TARGET. THE DISTANCE IS EXPRESSED IN METERS, SO LOOK AT THE SIZE OF EACH MAP DURING THE MISSION BRIEFING TO HAVE AN IDEA OF EACH SQUARE'S SIZE ON YOUR IN-GAME MAP.

FOR INSTANCE, IF YOU ARE FIGHTING ON A 3,000 X 3,000 METER MAP THAT HAS A GRID OF 10 ROWS AND 10 COLUMNS, YOU KNOW THAT EACH SQUARE ON THE GRID IS 300 X 300 METERS. SO IF YOU'RE EXACTLY TWO SQUARES AWAY FROM A TARGET ON THE SAME LEVEL AS YOU, START BOMBARDING AT 600 METERS.

THIS MAP IS 3,000 X 3,000 METERS, WHICH MEANS THAT EACH SQUARE ON THE IN-GAME MAP GRID IS 300 X 300 METERS.

The first mission in the heavy gunner campaign is a training mission set on the Rafzakael test field. Edgardo Gilardino is once again your instructor, and he gives you four objectives to complete. To complete this mission successfully, you cannot leave your starting position (point B4).

CAUTION

IF YOU MOVE OUTSIDE OF POINT B4, EDGARDO WILL STOP THE TRAINING MISSION AND DECLARE IT A FAILURE.

Start by facing the buildings toward the southeast and use the weapons in both of your weapon slots to bombard them. The buildings are 400–600 meters away, so use the range finder in your weapon cam to gauge the distance.

TIP

START WITH THE LOWER END OF THE RANGE AND LET THE ELEVATION FROM YOUR WEAPONS' KICKBACK NATURALLY INCREASE IT. DESTROY THE CLOSEST BUILDINGS FIRST AND METHODICALLY WORK TOWARD DESTROYING THE ONES FARTHER AWAY.

The next objective is to try to hit a moving target on the opposite side of the hill to the south. The target moves from point D4, which means it's approximately 600 meters away. Use your in-game map to aim toward it and drop a flurry of bombs in its direction at a 500–700 meter range. If your skills are sharp, you can nail the target without even seeing it!

USE YOUR WEAPONS' RANGE FINDER TO ACCURATELY BOMBARD THE BUILDINGS.

DESTROYING THE MOVING TARGET IS THE ONE AND ONLY EXTRA OPERATION BONUS YOU CAN EARN IN THIS MISSION, AND IF YOU WANT TO SCORE AN S RANKING, IT'S ABSOLUTELY ESSENTIAL THAT YOU COMPLETE IT.

Next, turn west toward point B2 and bombard the buildings of the settlement found there. The buildings are all 450–550 meters from you, so adjust your range accordingly.

ARTILLERY SPECIALIST CAMPAIGN

BOMBARDING NEAR CLUSTERS OF TARGETS CAN DAMAGE OR DESTROY THEM ALL IN ONE BLOW.

TIP

SWITCH BETWEEN YOUR WEAPONS SO THAT YOU CAN FIRE ONE WHILE THE OTHER IS RELOADING. JUST ADJUST YOUR RANGE BEFORE FIRING, AS YOU MUST COMPENSATE FOR THEIR DIFFERENT LEVELS OF KICKBACK.

The second mission of the heavy gunner campaign is your first live combat mission. Follow the instructions of your squad leaders, Sara and Faulk Vasili to complete all objectives.

Start by advancing north along the road from your starting point until Sara notifies you that there are enemies at points F4 and F5. Start bombarding at a range of 600 meters and lower that to destroy any enemies who make it through your initial bombardment.

STAY OFF OF THE HIGHWAY ITSELF ONCE THE FIREFIGHT BEGINS. YOUR ALLIES ARE A LITTLE EXUBERANT AND WILL FIRE DIRECTLY INTO YOU IN AN EFFORT TO HIT THE ENEMY.

THE FIRST WAVE OF ENEMIES ADVANCES TOWARD YOU FROM THE NORTH ALONG THE HIGHWAY.

BOMBARD THE SETTLEMENT TO THE NORTH TO COMPLETE THE MISSION.

Once the enemies are destroyed, keep moving north along the highway. By the time you reach point F5, the settlement to the north should be visible. Bombard it until Faulk tells you that you've destroyed enough of it to complete the mission.

The objective of this mission is simple. Enemies are advancing toward you from the south along the highway. You must destroy them all and let none get past you.

Start by moving up onto the embankment to the west to get a better view of the highway to the south. When Sara announces that the enemy is heading your way from point I3, watch the highway closely and start your bombardment as soon as you see them draw near.

TIP

IF YOU CAN KEEP THE ENEMY FROM REACHING POINTS C3 OR E5, YOU EARN ONE OF TWO EXTRA OPERATION BONUSES IN THIS MISSION. HOWEVER, YOU SHOULD BE ABLE TO ACHIEVE AN S RANKING FAIRLY EASILY, EVEN IF YOU DON'T EARN THIS BONUS.

STAND ON THE HILLSIDE TO THE WEST TO GET A BETTER VIEW OF THE ENEMIES ADVANCING ALONG THE HIGHWAY.

THE MAIN DETACHMENT OF THE ENEMY FORCE ADVANCES ALONG THE WESTERN HIGHWAY.

After the first couple of waves of enemies from the south, Sara notifies you that another wave approaches from the west. After destroying the last of the enemies advancing from the south, climb over the embankment to the west to see the western stretch of highway and the squad of tanks and heavily armored quadrupedal ACVs advancing toward you along it. Bombard them and destroy them all to complete the mission.

HEAVY GUNNER MISSION 4: ASSAULT ARMED GROUP BASE

BAS BAR

- TIME ELAPSED
- ENEMIES DESTROYED
- AVERAGE ATTACK DISTANCE

EXTRA OPERATIONS

- ALL ALLIED UNITS SURVIVE (1,000 POINTS)
- NO DAMAGE TO SARA'S ACV (1,000 POINTS)

TO EARN AN S RANKING FOR THIS MISSION, YOU MUST EARN AT LEAST 3,000 POINTS. COMPLETING THE MISSION UNLOCKS:

EARNING AN S RANKING UNLOCKS:

- ARMOR RFZ-AAM-3

THIS MAP IS 2,000 X 2,000 METERS, WHICH MEANS THAT EACH SQUARE ON THE IN-GAME MAP GRID IS 200 X 200 METERS.

You're the heavy gunner for this mission, so your job is to destroy the defenses surrounding the enemy base. Your first target is a line of bipedal ACVs directly in front of you to the southeast. They're approximately 550–600 meters from you. Destroy them all.

Once the ACVs are gone, move forward and occupy the hill that they stood on. As you advance, you are targeted by the battery of cannons along the wall of the enemy base. Although the shelling is intense, it's also pretty inaccurate. You may suffer a few near misses, but it's unlikely that you'll take a direct hit. And even if you do, your Hound is durable enough to withstand it.

The next objective is to destroy all of the guns along the battery. There are six of them along the wall, which runs diagonally from point F7 to I3, and they are labeled individually on your in-game map.

From the top of the hill you have occupied, you are just about at the same level as the guns, so use your in-game map to calculate how far each gun is from you, remembering that each square on the map grid is 200 x 200 meters. As soon as the entire battery is destroyed, the mission is complete.

BOMBARD THE ENEMY ACVs FROM YOUR STARTING LOCATION, AND THEN OCCUPY THE HILL THEY STOOD ON.

TIP

THE GUNS ARE MOSTLY 800–1,000 METERS FROM THE TOP OF THE HILL. YOUR BEST BET IS TO LINE YOURSELF WITH EACH ONE AND FIRE SEVERAL VOLLEYS OF MORTARS, EACH ONE 30–50 FEET FARTHER THAN THE LAST. YOU ONLY HAVE TO HIT EACH GUN WITH ONE MORTAR TO DESTROY IT.

While you are attacking the cannons, don't ignore the enemy reinforcements that approach. Sara warns you as they draw near. Let your allied forces keep them busy while you work on destroying the cannons, but if you start taking heavy fire from the enemy reinforcements, take a break from bombarding the cannons to deal with them personally.

IF YOUR ALLIES CAN'T HANDLE THE ENEMY REINFORCEMENTS, DISPOSE OF THEM PERSONALLY.

TIP

IF YOU'RE GOING FOR THE "ALL ALLIED UNITS SURVIVE" BONUS, MAKE DESTROYING THE ENEMY UNITS YOUR TOP PRIORITY. THIS BONUS IS NOT NECESSARY TO EARN AN S RANKING, HOWEVER. AS LONG AS YOU COMPLETE THE MISSION QUICKLY AND EFFICIENTLY, SARA'S ACV SHOULD SUFFER NO DAMAGE, SO YOU'RE LIKELY TO PICK UP THAT BONUS, WHICH IS PROBABLY ENOUGH TO EARN YOU THE S.

NOTE

THIS MAP IS 3,000 X 3,000 METERS, WHICH MEANS THAT EACH SQUARE ON THE IN-GAME MAP GRID IS 300 X 300 METERS.

This mission is extremely short, fast-paced, and simple, but that doesn't mean it's easy. Your job is to hold your starting position and destroy all enemies that come your way along the highway as they flee from the base you destroyed in the previous mission. If even a single enemy makes it past you and off of the map, the mission is a failure.

Start by aiming your weapons at the bend in the highway in front of you to the southwest. Start lobbing mortars at a range of 450–500 meters so that they impact at the bend. The advancing enemies do not deviate from their course, even if you shell the highway in front of them continuously, so switch back and forth between weapon slot 1 and 2 and keep up the bombardment. If any enemies make it past the USE WEAPON SLOT 3'S ROCKETS TO TAKE CARE OF ANY ENEMIES THAT ESCAPE THE BOMBARDMENT.

Enemy groups 1, 2, and 3 come at you from the highway directly in front of your starting position. The fourth group travels down a second highway to the south of your starting position. They start firing at you shortly after coming into view, so you'll have plenty of warning. Take them out quickly, because the fifth and final group of enemies comes down the same highway as groups 1, 2, and 3 shortly after group 4 appears. Once all of the enemies have been destroyed, the mission is complete.

DON'T SHOOT THE THREE HOVER CHASSIS ACVs AT THE END OF GROUP 5. THEY'RE ON YOUR SIDE!

CAUTION

DO NOT SHOOT THE THREE HOVER CHASSIS SCOUTS THAT FOLLOW GROUP 5! THESE ARE ALLIED ACVs, AND DESTROYING THEM COSTS YOU BOTH OF THE EXTRA OPERATION BONUSES!

THIS MAP IS 2,500 X 2,500 METERS, WHICH MEANS THAT EACH SQUARE ON THE IN-GAME MAP GRID IS 250 X 250 METERS.

Your first objective at the start of this mission is to destroy the two gun batteries on the ridge of the hill to the northwest. Move slightly northwest to stand at the highest point of the hill near your starting position and target the two cannons. The farther one is approximately 1,000 meters from you, and the nearer one is about 900 meters away.

Once you've destroyed the two cannons, help your allied units approaching from the northwest by shelling the quadrupedal enemy ACVs at the foot of the hill that the gun batteries stood on. If you fire at a range of about 500 meters, you should be in their ballpark.

When Sara informs you that an enemy garrison is approaching point E7, turn northeast and wait for them to come into view. The best way to destroy this group of heavily armored ACVs is to wait until they walk near the complex of oil wells, and then shoot the oil wells near them to damage them.

ONCE THE GUN BATTERIES HAVE BEEN WIPED OUT, HELP YOUR ALLIES TAKE OUT THE MOBILE ENEMY ACVs.

TIP

DESTROY EVERY STRUCTURE IN THE OIL WELL COMPLEX TO EARN THE EXTRA OPERATION BONUS "ALL OIL WELLS DESTROYED." YOU NEED ONLY ONE EXTRA OPERATION BONUS TO HAVE A SHOT AT AN S RANKING, AND THIS IS THE EASIEST ONE TO GET.

BLOW UP THE OIL WELLS TO DESTROY NEARBY ENEMY ACVs.

DESTROYING THE LAST WAVE OF BIPEDAL ENEMY ACVs COMPLETES THE MISSION.

Once all the enemies near the oil wells have been destroyed, a cutscene shows Sara's ACV being sniped and destroyed by a black Hound. When you resume control, the Hound fires at you from a distant hill to the north and a line of bipedal ACVs marches west along the highway below you. Attack the Hound if you want to drive it off and earn the "force enemy Hound retreat" bonus, or just destroy the ACVs to complete the mission.

In this, the final mission of the heavy gunner campaign, you have to hunt down and destroy the enemy once and for all. They are deployed in three locations. The first location is an oil field directly in front of your starting position to the north.

THERE'S A LOT OF STUFF TO BLOW UP IN THIS MISSION AND NOT A LOT OF AMMO TO DO IT WITH, SO MAKE A CONCERTED EFFORT TO MAKE EVERY SINGLE SHOT COUNT.

Allied ACVs approach from the west, so after destroying any enemy that is firing at you, your first priority should be to level all of the oil field structures from west to east. This denies the enemy cover from which to attack you and your allies and drives them to retreat to the settlement to the northwest.

DESTROY ALL OF THE STRUCTURES IN THE OIL FIELD TO MAKE PROGRESS TOWARD THE OPTIONAL OBJECTIVE "OIL WELLS/BUILDINGS DESTROYED."

Once the enemies in the oil field have been obliterated or driven to retreat, don't pursue them to the northeastern settlement just yet. Instead, move north toward the castle wall in the northwest (marked with a "2" on your in-game map).

DESTROY THE OIL FIELD STRUCTURES TO DEPRIVE YOUR ENEMY OF COVER AND DAMAGE ANY ENEMIES NEAR THE STRUCTURES WHEN THEY ARE DESTROYED.

Several more enemy ACVs are here, as well as a number of allied reinforcements on the north side of the stone wall. As soon as the wall is within range, bombard it to destroy it and turn the allied ACVs loose on the enemy. Not only do they help you take out this second group of enemies quickly, they'll be available to help you wipe out the third group of enemies, which you must take on next.

CAUTION

BE CAREFUL NOT TO ACCIDENTALLY HIT YOUR ALLIES ON THE OTHER SIDE OF THE WALL WHEN BLOWING IT UP, OR YOU'LL LOSE YOUR "NEVER HIT ANY FRIENDLIES" EXTRA OPERATION BONUS.

Turn east and head for the third group of enemies (labeled with a "3" on your in-game map). They are hidden among the dilapidated structures of an abandoned settlement. You're not cut out for close-quarters combat, so stand on the hill to the west of the settlement that overlooks it and bombard the buildings while your allies move in and hunt down the ACVs. Provide support fire as needed. When all enemies are destroyed, the mission is complete.

BLOWING UP THE WALL LETS YOUR ALLIED REINFORCEMENTS JOIN THE FRAY.

BRING DOWN THE HOUSE ON YOUR ENEMIES WHILE YOUR ALLIES SWEEP IN FOR THE KILL.

DESTROY ALL OF THE BUILDINGS IN THE SETTLEMENT TO ACHIEVE THE "OIL WELLS/BUILDINGS DESTROYED" EXTRA OPERATION BONUS, ASSUMING THAT YOU ALSO DESTROYED ALL OF THE OIL FIELD STRUCTURES.

EVALUATION CRITERIA

- TIME ELAPSED

EARNING AN S RANKING UNLOCKS:

The first mission in the tactics commander campaign is a training mission set on the Rafzakael test field. Unlike other RT campaigns, you don't wind up in active combat for most of the tactics commander campaign. Instead, you order your units to strategically attack targets and capture COMBASs.

Bring up your in-game map to see that you and the two allied units under your command are at point B7. Use the directional pad to order your units to attack the two enemy units at point C6 by selecting the following command: All Attack Grid C-6.

Once the enemies are destroyed, order unit 1 to capture COMBAS A at point D5 with the command 01 Capture COMBAS A. Send unit 2 to capture COMBAS B (02 Capture COMBAS B). Unit 2 will find and attack an enemy at point F8 once COMBAS B is secured.

START BY SENDING BOTH OF YOUR ALLIED UNITS AFTER THE ENEMIES AT POINT C6.

TIP

MOVE ALONG BEHIND YOUR UNITS TO EXTEND YOUR PERSONAL NA TO COVER THEM AND REVEAL ENEMY UNITS THAT THEY MAY ENCOUNTER.

To complete the mission, you must find and destroy all enemies on the map. Send one unit to capture COMBAS C and the other after COMBAS D. Each COMBAS has an enemy near it that your units will automatically attack. They should have no trouble destroying these enemies and completing the mission.

SEND OUT YOUR UNITS TO CAPTURE THE REMAINING COMBASs AND REVEAL AND DESTROY THE REMAINING ENEMIES.

TIP

SENDING YOUR UNITS OUT INDIVIDUALLY TO CAPTURE COMBASs AND DESTROY ENEMIES CAN BE RISKY, BUT THEY'RE MORE THAN A MATCH FOR ANY TROUBLE THEY ENCOUNTER IN THIS MISSION. BECAUSE YOU'RE EVALUATED ON THE TIME ELAPSED FOR THE MISSION, THE FASTER YOU CAN SEEK OUT AND DESTROY THE ENEMIES, THE HIGHER YOUR EVALUATION SCORE WILL BE.

THROUGHOUT THE TACTICS COMMANDER CAMPAIGN YOU MUST COORDINATE THE MOVEMENTS OF SEVERAL UNITS WHILE CAPTURING SEVERAL WAYPOINT OBJECTIVES—ALL SIMULTANEOUSLY! IF YOU DO FEEL THE NEED TO SPLIT YOUR FORCES, HERE'S AN EASY METHOD TO FOLLOW: START BY ORDERING THE ENTIRE FORCE TO A CENTRALIZED POINT YOU WANT TO CAPTURE. WHILE YOUR FORCE IS IN TRANSIT, GIVE INDIVIDUAL UNITS ORDERS TO TAKE OTHER OBJECTIVES. THIS KEEPS THE MAIN BODY OF YOUR FORCE TOGETHER AND IN MOTION, AND IT CUTS DOWN ON THE AMOUNT OF COMMANDS YOU MUST ISSUE.

Your main objective in this mission is to quickly locate and destroy enemy units advancing from the south. If you can stop them quickly enough, you earn an extra operation bonus. If you manage to do it without losing any of your allied units, you earn a second bonus.

Before you can effectively attack the enemy, you need to find them. Units 1, 2, and 3 are scouts, and 4 and 5 are soldiers. Start by ordering the scouts to secure COMBASs A, B, and C. At the same time, send the soldiers to COMBAS C, as the first group of enemy units is there, hiding at point C6. Order all of your units to attack them (All Attack Grid C-6).

ORDER YOUR SCOUTS TO CAPTURE COMBAS A, B, AND C AND ALL UNITS TO ATTACK THE ENEMIES AT C6.

UNIT 1 IS PILOTED BY RAHMAN NIKBAKHT. IF HIS ACV OR YOUR HOUND IS DESTROYED, THE MISSION IS A FAILURE.

Next, order the scouts to capture COMBASs D, E, F, and G, while ordering the soldiers down to COMBASs H and I. Find the second group of enemies in or around point H4. As soon as you discover them, order all units to attack and destroy them to complete the mission.

THE SECOND GROUP OF ENEMIES IS AROUND POINT H4. DESTROY THEM TO COMPLETE THE MISSION.

YOUR SCOUTS ARE NOT DESIGNED FOR HEAVY COMBAT DUTY, SO LET YOUR SOLDIERS LEAD THE WAY TO POINTS WHERE YOU KNOW THE ENEMY WILL BE FOUND.

EXTRA OPERATIONS

Four bases are designated as enemy bases on this map, but only one of them is the actual enemy base. It's your job to figure out which one is the real deal and destroy it within a 10-minute time limit to complete the mission. You could move from base to base and see which one bears the enemy flag in order to determine which base is the one you need to destroy.

Or we could just tell you: it's enemy base 2.

IF THE TIME LIMIT EXPIRES, OR IF YOUR HOUND OR RAHMAN'S ACV (UNIT 1) IS DESTROYED, THE MISSION IS A FAILURE.

The map features two large clusters of enemies. The first is near COMBAS B. If you send all of your allied units to COMBAS B (All Attack COMBAS B), they should be able to overwhelm and destroy the enemy without suffering any losses.

IF YOU ARE TRYING TO ACHIEVE THE "CAPTURE ALL COMBAS" EXTRA OPERATION BONUS, SEND RAHMAN TO CAPTURE COMBAS A AND C AT THIS TIME. NO ENEMIES ARE NEAR EITHER, SO YOU DON'T HAVE TO WORRY ABOUT HIM BEING DESTROYED.

The rest of the enemies are massed to the northwest, west, and southwest of enemy base 2. If you want to capture all of the COMBASs, send your scouts after COMBASs D, E, F, and H right now, and lead the soldiers to approach COMBAS G and engage the enemy.

SEND ALL OF YOUR ALLIED UNITS TO COMBAS B TO CAPTURE IT AND DESTROY THE DEFENDING ENEMIES.

ALTHOUGH TACTICALLY IT'S A BETTER IDEA TO LURE THE ENEMY AWAY FROM ENEMY BASE 2 WITH A FAST-MOVING SCOUT, LEAVING THE BASE UNDEFENDED, THE ENEMY ACVs ARE NO MATCH FOR EVEN A MEDIOCRE HOUND PILOT. LEADING UNITS INTO BATTLE ISN'T THE TYPICAL STRATEGY FOR A TACTICAL COMMANDER, BUT IT GETS THE JOB DONE QUICKLY.

ONCE THE ENEMY BASE IS DESTROYED, THE MISSION IS COMPLETE.

CAUTION

IF YOU WANT TO EARN THE "SECURE ALL COMBAS" EXTRA OPERATION BONUS, DON'T DESTROY THE BASE UNTIL ALL COMBAS ARE SECURE!

As soon as the enemies around enemy base 2 have been lured away or destroyed, order all of your otherwise unoccupied allied units to attack the base (All Attack Enemy Base 2). Once the base falls, the mission is complete.

Your objective in this mission is to destroy a convoy of enemy ACVs traveling northeast along the highway from point J1, but it's almost impossible to earn an S ranking without also completing both extra operations. To do so, you must take the following actions in order:

1. Order your snipers (units 3, 4, and 5) to move to point C2.
2. Order Rahman (unit 1) to capture COMBAS E.
3. Order your other scout (unit 2) to capture COMBAS J.
4. Move to COMBAS I and capture it yourself. While doing so, be sure to update orders for units 1 and 2 as they capture their COMBASs.
5. Order Rahman (unit 1) to capture COMBAS B.
6. Order unit 2 to capture COMBAS F.
7. Move to COMBAS G and capture it yourself.
8. Order Rahman (unit 1) to capture COMBAS A.

EARNING AN S RANKING ON THIS MISSION REQUIRES PRECISE MANAGEMENT OF YOUR ALLIED FORCES.

9. Order unit 2 to capture COMBAS C.
10. Move to COMBAS D and capture it yourself. Once it is captured, move into the middle of the highway at point C4 and face west. Watch your radar for any advancing enemies that make it past your snipers. Destroy the enemies before they reach point C5 to complete the mission and earn the bonus.

AS SOON AS YOUR SCOUTS (UNITS 1 AND 2) SEIZE A COMBAS, ORDER THEM TO THEIR NEXT ONE IMMEDIATELY. COMPLETING ALL OPTIONAL OBJECTIVES REQUIRES SPLIT-SECOND TIMING.

EXTRA OPERATIONS

- OWN HOUND NOT DAMAGED (1,000 POINTS)
- ALL ALLIED UNITS SURVIVE (1,000 POINTS)

TO EARN AN S RANKING FOR THIS MISSION, YOU MUST EARN AT LEAST 3,000 POINTS. COMPLETING THE MISSION UNLOCKS:

- FUEL TANK RFZ-AFS-1
- EARNING AN S RANKING UNLOCKS:
- TREADED CHASSIS RFZ-CL-1

This is another seek-and-destroy mission. You have five units. Unit 1 is Rahman, piloting a scout ACV. Unit 2 is another scout, and units 3, 4, and 5 are snipers. You must use them all effectively to complete the mission, and your tactics must be incredibly sharp if you want to earn the S ranking, which requires you to achieve both extra operation bonuses.

NOTE

IF YOUR HOUND OR RAHMAN'S ACV IS DESTROYED, THE MISSION IS A FAILURE. FORTUNATELY, THIS STRATEGY IS DESIGNED TO KEEP YOU FROM SUFFERING ANY DAMAGE, AND TO ENSURE THAT ALL ALLIED UNITS SURVIVE, SO IF YOU FOLLOW IT CAREFULLY, YOU SHOULD BE FINE.

From your starting position, send units 1 and 2 out to capture COMBASs H and I, and send the rest to COMBAS G. Once COMBASs H and I have been captured, send units 1 and 2 to join the others at COMBAS G. There are three enemy ACVs near COMBAS G, at point F1. Your five units should make short work of them and suffer no losses.

TIP

A GOOD STRATEGY IS TO HAVE THE SNIPERS WAIT NEAR COMBAS G AND USE THE SCOUTS TO LURE THE ENEMY OVER TO THE SNIPERS. REMEMBER, SNIPERS ARE DEADLIEST WHEN GIVEN THE ADVANTAGE OF RANGE.

Move all of your units up to COMBAS D and capture it. Advance on COMBAS A, but watch out for the enemy ACVs lying in ambush between COMBASs A and B. Once again, use your scouts to lure the enemy into the path of your snipers and eradicate them. Capture COMBASs A and B, and then move on to COMBAS E. You should have the advantage of high ground, which is handy for taking out the ACVs guarding COMBAS E.

MAKE CAPTURING COMBASs H AND I YOUR FIRST PRIORITY. FROM THERE, MOVE CLOCKWISE AROUND THE MAP, CAPTURING COMBASs AND ERADICATING ENEMIES.

CAUTION

IF ANY OF YOUR ALLIED UNITS REPORT THAT THE ENEMY RESISTANCE IS TOO STRONG, OR THAT THE ENEMY HAS THE UPPER HAND, IT MEANS THAT THEY ARE TAKING DAMAGE. ORDER THEM OUT OF THE BATTLE IMMEDIATELY, OR THEY MIGHT BE DESTROYED, COSTING YOU THE EXTRA OPERATION BONUS AND YOUR SHOT AT AN S RANKING.

Capture COMBAS E with a scout, and then move on to COMBAS C. Use the same strategy: Position the snipers on high ground near the enemies around COMBAS C and lure the enemies into range with the scouts. Once they have been destroyed, move south to destroy the remaining enemies near COMBAS F and complete the mission.

ONCE ALL ENEMIES HAVE BEEN DESTROYED, THE MISSION IS COMPLETE.

CAUTION

ALTHOUGH YOUR HOUND CAN MAKE SHORT WORK OF THE ENEMY ACVs, DON'T MOVE ANYWHERE NEAR THE FRONT LINE. IF YOU TAKE EVEN A SINGLE BULLET'S WORTH OF DAMAGE, YOU LOSE YOUR CHANCE AT THE "OWN HOUND NOT DAMAGED" EXTRA OPERATION BONUS. COMMAND ALL OF YOUR TROOPS FROM YOUR STARTING POSITION TO AVOID ANY CHANCE OF TAKING DAMAGE.

TACTICS COMMANDER MISSION 6: HOUND RECOVERY 2

- TIME ELAPSED
- DAMAGE TAKEN
- SURVIVING ALLIES

EXTRA OPERATIONS

- ALL ALLIED UNITS SURVIVE (1,000 POINTS)
- NO ENEMY LEFT NEAR HQ (1,000 POINTS)

TO EARN AN S RANKING FOR THIS MISSION, YOU MUST EARN AT LEAST 3,000 POINTS. COMPLETING THE MISSION UNLOCKS:

- MORTAR RFZ-WMT-3

- SENSORS RFZ-ASD-S1

In this mission, your squad is split into two teams. Rahman leads Alpha Team, which is composed of himself and unit 2, a soldier. You command Bravo Team, which is made up of three soldier ACVs (units 3, 4, and 5) and your own Hound. Alpha Team takes a long curving route to the northwest to assault enemy base I at point C1. It's your job to lure the enemy away from the base before Alpha Team arrives and is overwhelmed by their superior numbers.

As soon as the mission begins, order your units to capture COMBAS F and attack the enemy forces around it. Move with them and lend a hand in combat. The enemy ACVs won't be able to inflict much damage on you at all, and your machine guns will shred them in no time.

TAKE AN ACTIVE PART IN COMBAT TO SECURE COMBAS F.

Immediately order your troops up to COMBAS A, which is located right near enemy base I. You should arrive right about the time that Alpha Team arrives. Your first priority is to draw fire away from Rahman, because if he is destroyed, the mission is a failure. Your second priority is to destroy all enemy units around the base and earn the extra operation bonus. Your third priority is to destroy the base as quickly as you can, with the assistance of your allies. Once the base falls, the mission is complete.

DESTROYING ENEMY BASE 1 COMPLETES THE MISSION.

IF ALL OF YOUR ALLIED UNITS SURVIVE (AND THEY SHOULD), YOU EARN THE "ALL ALLIED UNITS SURVIVE" EXTRA OPERATION BONUS.

TACTICS COMMANDER MISSION 7: HOUND RECOVERY 3

RUINS

- TIME ELAPSED
- DAMAGE TAKEN
- SURVIVING ALLIES

EXTRA OPERATIONS

- TIME SPENT—LESS THAN 5 MINUTES (1,000 POINTS)
- KEPT RAHMAN FROM HEAVY DAMAGE (1,000 POINTS)
- OWN HOUND NOT DAMAGED (1,000 POINTS)

TO EARN AN S RANKING FOR THIS MISSION, YOU MUST EARN AT LEAST 3,000 POINTS. COMPLETING THE MISSION UNLOCKS:

- NA MAKER RFZ-NM-2

EARNING AN S RANKING UNLOCKS:

- CANNON RFZ-WCN-2

The objective of this mission is straightforward: find and destroy all enemies in the area. The complicating factor is that one of them is a stolen Hound, which makes everything a lot more dangerous. To make matters worse, Rahman takes off to conduct hit-and-run attacks at the start of the mission, and if you don't follow and support him, he'll be chewed up and spit out by the enemy Hound, suffering heavy damage (and, more importantly, denying you an extra operation bonus!).

To keep this from happening, order all of your units to attack near COMBAS F (All Attack COMBAS F), which is the general location of the enemy Hound. They help to draw its fire from Rahman and gives you a chance to catch up and enter the battle.

Join the battle yourself and blast away at the enemy Hound. With your allies providing support fire and the Hound's operator being distracted by their attacks, you should be able to make short work of it. Once it has been destroyed, seek out and destroy all other enemies in the area to complete the mission and the campaign.

THE LARGE RED DOT ON YOUR MAP REPRESENTS THE ENEMY HOUND.

ONCE ALL ENEMIES HAVE BEEN DESTROYED, THE MISSION IS COMPLETE.

DON'T WORRY ABOUT NOT ACHIEVING THE "OWN HOUND NOT DAMAGED" EXTRA OPERATION. IF YOU PICK UP THE OTHER TWO, YOU'LL SCORE AN S RANKING WITH NO PROBLEM.

NOTE

COMPLETING THIS MISSION AWARDS YOU THE COMMANDER MEDAL AND THE FINAL MISSION OF THE SINGLE-PLAYER MODE. FOR A LIST OF ALL MEDALS AND HOW TO UNLOCK THEM, SEE THE APPENDIX AT THE END OF THIS GUIDE.

FINAL MISSION: ATTACK UNIDENTIFIED SQUAD

VILLAGE RUIN

EXTRA OPERATIONS

- NO DAMAGED PARTS
- DESTROY CARLOS'S HOUND
- DESTROY OSCAR'S HOUND

THERE IS NO EVALUATION FOR THIS MISSION. COMPLETING IT UNLOCKS THE FOLLOWING PARTS, WHICH ARE EQUIPPED ON EDGARDO'S HOUND:

- TREADED CHASSIS RFZ-CL-X
- HUGE ROCKET RFZ-WHR-1

This is the final mission of the single-player campaign, and it pits you against three of the deadliest enemies in the game: the two black Hounds you saw previously in the RT campaigns and your instructor, Edgardo Gilardino. Unless you are the world's most gifted Hound pilot, attacking them head-on is suicide. Here's the best way to beat them:

From your starting point, move north along the road, picking off tanks as they appear in the ruins of the village. When you reach point H5, turn west and climb up the steep hill. Move clockwise around the large hill in the map's southwest corner and into the valley that stretches from point H1 to point E3.

IF YOU WERE TO CONTINUE ALONG THAT ROAD TO THE NORTH, YOU'D QUICKLY BE ATTACKED BY TWO OF THE THREE HOUNDS, WHO WOULD COME AT YOU FROM HIGHER GROUND—NOT A RECIPE FOR TACTICAL VICTORY.

CAUTION

SEVERAL MORE ENEMY TANKS ARE ALONG THIS ROUTE. THEY WON'T DO MUCH DAMAGE IF YOU KEEP A SHARP EYE ON YOUR RADAR AND PICK THEM OFF WITH YOUR WEAPON SLOT 1 MACHINE GUNS AS SOON AS YOU SEE THEM.

Edgardo's Hound sits in the middle of the ruins of the village at point D3, right near COMBAS B. As soon as you attack him, he advances on you, as does the black defender Hound. (You should be able to avoid attracting the attention of the tactical commander Hound.) At this point, it all comes down to your skill as a Hound pilot. The black Hounds are incredibly tough, and their weapons are very powerful.

MOVE CLOCKWISE AROUND THE LARGE HILL IN THE SOUTHWEST TO SNEAK UP ON EDGARDO AND HIS CRONIES.

DEFEATING THE MAN WHO TRAINED YOU REQUIRES ALL OF YOUR HOUND PILOTING SKILLS. GOOD LUCK!

Keep the following strategies in mind while fighting them:

- Your rockets (weapon slots 2 and 3) are your best weapons. Your machine guns won't have much effect.
- Switch between weapon slots 2 and 3 to avoid waiting for a single weapon to reload between shots.
- Stay in motion at all times. You can't afford to be hit by the super weapon that Edgardo's Hound is packing.
- Keep the high ground, and don't be afraid to back off and lure them back into the valley.
- When firing rockets at a distance, aim slightly over the target to compensate for the arc of the rocket at long ranges.

TIP

EDGARDO IS YOUR PRIMARY TARGET. AS SOON AS HE IS DESTROYED, THE MISSION IS COMPLETE. IGNORE ALL OTHER ATTACKERS AND FOCUS ON DESTROYING HIM FIRST IF AT ALL POSSIBLE. EDGARDO IS THE ONE WITH A TREADED CHASSIS AND THREE CLUSTERS OF WEAPONS.

XBOX LIVE

To play ChromeHounds online, you must have your Xbox 360 hooked up to a high-speed Internet connection and sign up to become an Xbox Live member. For information about connecting to Xbox Live, visit www.xbox.com/live.

TIP

CHROMEHOOUNDS SUPPORTS THE XBOX LIVE ACHIEVEMENTS SYSTEM. YOU CAN COLLECT DOZENS OF MEDALS DURING THE COURSE OF THE GAME, AND EACH IS CREDITED AS AN ACHIEVEMENT TO YOUR GAMER PROFILE. REFER TO THE XBOX DASHBOARD TO VIEW YOUR CURRENT CHROMEHOOUNDS ACHIEVEMENTS AND TO THE APPENDIX AT THE END OF THIS GUIDE FOR A LIST OF ALL AVAILABLE MEDALS AND HOW TO COLLECT THEM.

DATA CONVERSION

If you want to import the patterns and parts you've unlocked in the single-player story mode to online play, choose the Data Conversion option from the Xbox Live menu. If you return to single-player mode and complete additional objectives, you need to select this option again to import the new parts and patterns into online play.

REGISTRATION

WHEN PLAYING CHROMEHOOUNDS ONLINE, FIRST SELECT YOUR NATIONAL ALLEGIANCE.

The first time you connect to Xbox Live in ChromeHounds, you must declare your allegiance to one of the three nations of the Neroimus region: Tarakia, Morskoj, or Sal Kar. Your allegiance not only dictates who you fight for, it also determines what types of Hound parts are available to you and with how much Hound-building cash you start out. You can change allegiances once after registration during a Neroiums War. This option is accessed through the Squad/Player menu. It's a good idea to confirm allegiances with your friends before picking yours. All players are on the same server.

When you first register with a country, you must select the Role Type (RT) you intend to fulfill and choose one of the donated Rafzakael Hounds to get you started. You're not obligated to use this Hound—or even serve strictly in this RT—but your selection should reflect the role you initially intend to play in your squad.

ALLEGIANCE/DETAILS

COUNTRY	CASH
	STARTING	HOUND PARTS
TARAKIA	$300,000	WELL-BALANCED BETWEEN SPEED AND POWER, WITH NO OBVIOUS ADVANTAGES OR DISADVANTAGES
MORSKOJ	$200,000	HEAVY WEAPONS AND ARMOR THAT SACRIFICE SPEED FOR POWER AND DURABILITY
SAL KAR	$600,000	LIGHT WEAPONS AND ARMOR THAT MAKE FOR FAST LIGHTLY ARMORED HOUNDS WITH LESS OFFENSIVE POWER

JOINING A SQUAD

A squad is a group of up to 20 players who have banded together to fight for the same country. Only six players from a single squad can take part in a battle at a time. You don't have to be a member of a squad to play the Free Battle mode, but if you want to fight in the Neroimus War, you must belong to a squad.

Each squad has a squad profile that lists what RTs the squad wants to accept. Use the search feature to find squads that are recruiting the RT that you've decided to play and apply for membership. After the squad accepts you, you're in.

BUILDING AND MODIFYING YOUR HOUND

You'll be spending a lot of time in the Garage fine-tuning your Hound, if you're serious about success on the battlefield. Winning battles not only advances your country's position in the Neroimus War, it also awards you cash that you can spend in the Shop to purchase parts and upgrade your Hound.

EARNING MONEY

There are several ways to earn money in Chromehounds, and most of them involve emerging victorious in battle.

INITIAL STIPEND

You are given a Hound-building stipend upon registering your allegiance with a nation when you first begin online play. Each nation offers a different amount of initial cash, but all of them give you enough to build a serviceable Hound from the start of the game.

WINNING BATTLES

Winning Neroimus War and Individual Mission battles earns you a victory cash bonus. Each Neroimus War mission also comes with an expense cost for things such as fuel, ammunition, and repairs whether you win or lose, which your squad must pay. In Individual Missions, your expenses are covered, so any money you earn is pure profit.

NOTE

THE VICTORY BONUSES ARE DETERMINED BY YOUR COUNTRY'S SUCCESSES IN THE NEROIMUS WAR AND THEIR CURRENT LEADERSHIP. OCCUPYING MORE TERRITORIES ALLOWS A COUNTRY TO PAY OUT LARGER VICTORY BONUSES, AND THE NATION'S GOVERNMENT DETERMINES ITS DEFENSE BUDGET, WHICH ALSO AFFECTS THE PAYOUT, AS WELL AS ITS ABILITY TO RESEARCH NEWER AND MORE POWERFUL WEAPONS.

INDIVIDUAL REWARDS

Each squad member can also earn individual cash rewards for exemplary performance on the battlefield. These bonuses are awarded for achieving mission-critical goals, such as capturing COMBASs or destroying enemy units. Even if your squad loses a battle, it's still possible for you to turn a profit from the battle by fighting valiantly.

ACQUIRING PARTS

The greatest strength of a Hound is the interchangeability of its parts. The best Hound pilots are always on the prowl for better parts, and there are several ways to acquire them.

TIP

FOR A COMPLETE LIST OF HOUND PARTS, WITH COMPLETE STATISTICS FOR EACH, REFER TO THE APPENDIX.

HOUND PART TYPES

Every Hound is made up of the following parts:

- COCKPIT: THE HEART OF THE HOUND, THE COCKPIT CONTAINS THE SYSTEM DEVICE AND ITS OWN GENERATOR, WHICH PROVIDES A SMALL AMOUNT OF POWER TO THE HOUND. IF IT IS DESTROYED, THE HOUND IS RENDERED INOPERATIVE. THIS IS AN ESSENTIAL PART.
- CHASSIS: THE "LEG PARTS" OF THE HOUND DETERMINE HOW FAST THE HOUND MOVES AND HOW MUCH WEIGHT ("LOAD") IT CAN HOLD. CERTAIN CHASSIS, LIKE HOVER CHASSIS, HELP COMPENSATE FOR UNFAVORABLE TERRAIN. THIS IS AN ESSENTIAL PART.
- LIGHT AND HEAVY WEAPONS: WITHOUT SOME SORT OF OFFENSIVE ABILITY, A HOUND IS PRACTICALLY WORTHLESS ON THE FIELD OF BATTLE. HEAVY WEAPONS DO MORE DAMAGE, BUT THEY WEIGH MORE AND USE MORE ENERGY THAN LIGHT WEAPONS.
- GENERATOR: IF YOUR HOUND'S CHASSIS DOESN'T SUPPLY ENOUGH POWER FOR ITS PARTS, YOUR HOUND WILL BE SLOW AND SLUGGISH. INSTALL A GENERATOR OR TWO IN ORDER TO PROVIDE MORE POWER TO THE HOUND.
- SYSTEM DEVICE: THE CHIPS OFFERED IN THIS CATEGORY CAN MAKE OR BREAK A HOUND. THEY ARE A NECESSARY COMPONENT THAT ALLOWS THE USER TO FURTHER CUSTOMIZE AND FINE TUNE THEIR HOUND TO THEIR STYLE OF GAMEPLAY. THE CHIPS DETERMINE THE TOP SPEED, STABILITY OF YOUR HOUND, AND HOW EFFICIENT A KILLER A HOUND IS WITH WEAPON SYSTEM MANAGEMENT.
- NA MAKER: A REQUIRED PART FOR COMMANDER RTs, THE NA MAKER CREATES A NETWORK AREA (NA) THAT KEEPS ALL ALLIED UNITS WITHIN RANGE IN COMMUNICATION WITH EACH OTHER. IT ALSO IDENTIFIES THE LOCATIONS OF ALL FRIENDLY AND ENEMY UNITS WITHIN RANGE, WHETHER THEY'RE MOVING OR NOT.
- SPACER: THE ONLY PURPOSE OF A SPACER IS TO EXTEND THE HOUND'S JOINTS AND PREVENT PARTS FROM CONFLICTING WITH EACH OTHER WHEN PLACED ON THE HOUND.
- ARMOR: THIS IS SIMPLE, STURDY PLATING THAT IS DESIGNED TO ABSORB THE IMPACT OF ENEMY FIRE AND PROTECT MORE VALUABLE HOUND PARTS.
- SENSORS: THESE OPTIONAL-ASSIST PARTS HELP COMPENSATE FOR BATTLEFIELD CONDITIONS LIKE DARKNESS OR INCLEMENT WEATHER BY GIVING YOU AN ALTERNATE WAY OF VIEWING THE BATTLEFIELD, LIKE NIGHT VISION OR THERMAL IMAGING.
- FUEL STORAGE: IF YOUR GENERATOR REQUIRES MORE FUEL TO CHURN OUT ITS MAXIMUM ENERGY OUTPUT, SLAP ON ONE OF THESE. SOME FUEL TANKS CAN ALSO PULL DOUBLE-DUTY AS SPACERS.
- RADIATOR: IF YOUR HOUND GENERATES MORE HEAT THAN IT COOLS, IT WILL GRADUALLY SLOW DOWN OVER THE COURSE OF A BATTLE. THIS OPTIONAL-ASSIST PART HELPS COOL DOWN THE HOUND AND KEEPS IT RUNNING AT PEAK PERFORMANCE.
- MISSILE COUNTER: THIS OPTIONAL-ASSIST PART CAN THROW HEAT-SEEKING MISSILES OFF OF THE TRAIL OF THE HOUND IF IT IS USED IMMEDIATELY AFTER THE MISSILE IS FIRED.
- NA JAMMER: A HOUND EQUIPPED WITH THIS ASSIST PART CAN TEMPORARILY RENDER ITSELF INVISIBLE WITHIN THE ENEMY NA. PERFECT FOR SCOUTS AND STEALTHY COMBATANTS.
- ROTOR CRAFT: YOU CAN GIVE YOUR HOUND LIMITED FLIGHT CAPABILITIES WITH THIS ASSIST PART. ROTOR CRAFTS USE A GREAT DEAL OF ENERGY AND REQUIRE LIGHTER HOUNDS TO WORK BEST.

THE SHOP

The most common way to acquire new Hound parts is to purchase them from the Shop, using money earned in Neroimus War or Individual Mission battles. If you've got the cash, you can purchase anything you see in the Shop.

The Shop's inventory is limited by a couple of factors. First of all, it only contains parts native to the country for which you're fighting. Second, the variety of parts available for purchase varies depending on the nation's research budget. If the nation you're fighting for can't or won't conduct sufficient research, you won't have access to the best stuff.

LOTTERIES

After winning a battle in the Neroimus War, your squad members can enter a lottery for Hound parts from the enemy Hounds you just faced. To enter the lottery, buy tickets for any available part in which you're interested. The lottery is conducted several real-time hours after the battle, and the winner(s) have the Hound parts deposited in their inventory.

IF ONLY ONE SQUAD MEMBER BUYS A LOTTERY TICKET FOR A SPECIFIC PART, THAT MEMBER IS GUARANTEED TO WIN THE LOTTERY, SO THERE'S NO NEED TO BUY MORE THAN ONE TICKET.

TRADING

Squad members can trade parts with each other. This is a great way for experienced squad members to bring a rookie's Hound up to speed quickly. With the cash they've earned over the course of their much longer careers, they can purchase tons of the best equipment and trade it to their new recruits. You can also use the trading feature to sell parts to teammates for cash, or to donate cash to teammates.

XBOX MARKETPLACE

At certain points, rare Hound parts might be offered on Xbox Marketplace. Keep your eyes peeled for any sign that this rare hardware is available!

PART PLACEMENT

To place parts on your Hound, select a part from your inventory, and then choose the socket on your Hound where you'd like to connect the part. Rotate the part so it faces in the desired direction and doesn't conflict with other parts.

IF ANY PART OF THE HOUND TURNS RED WHILE YOU'RE PLACING PARTS, THERE IS A PHYSICAL CONFLICT BETWEEN THE PARTS YOU'VE PLACED AND THE PART YOU'RE TRYING TO PLACE. TRY PUTTING THE PART ON A DIFFERENT SOCKET, ROTATING THE PART, OR SELECTING A DIFFERENT PART.

ASSEMBLY/CONTROLS

 OR 	SELECT ITEM, FIND SOCKETS, ADJUST POSITION OF PARTS
	ROTATE CAMERA

	UNDO LAST ACTION (PULL AGAIN TO REDO LAST ACTION)

USING SPACERS

If you're trying to install larger parts that keep conflicting with other Hound parts, or if you're running low on sockets, try adding a spacer or two to the Hound. Spacers add additional sockets at a distance from the main body of the Hound, which helps to make room for larger parts.

EXPOSING AND HIDING PARTS

When building your Hound, consider which parts you want to expose and which ones you want to hide. If your cockpit is heavily damaged, the entire Hound is rendered inoperable, so placing it on top of a stack of other parts with no protection is a sure-fire recipe for spending a lot of time on the sidelines of battle.

If any part is heavily damaged, you lose the functionality of that part. If your generator gets shot to pieces, your Hound will suddenly have a lot less energy. A heavily damaged chassis dramatically reduces or completely cripples your movement rate.

There is a clear hierarchy of importance to the parts. You absolutely cannot afford to have your cockpit heavily damaged in battle, so consider placing your generator and other assist parts in front of it and behind it to absorb damage.

Expose your weapons. When you switch into weapon cam mode, you're seeing the battlefield from the perspective of one of your weapons. Therefore, if your weapons extend past the cockpit, you can keep your cockpit behind cover while using your weapon to see and shoot enemies.

WEAPON GROUPING

After adding weapons to your Hound, use the Weapon Settings option to group them into as many as four weapon slots, each of which can hold up to four weapons. Selecting a weapon slot and firing shoots all of the weapons in the group simultaneously, so keep that in mind when assigning them to slots.

The weapon cam is attached to the first weapon in each slot. Therefore, the weapons in each weapon slot should be in close proximity to each other, so they fire at almost the same point (the center of your targeting reticle in the weapon cam).

ALTHOUGH SPREADING THE WEAPONS IN A SINGLE SLOT ACROSS THE BODY OF THE HOUND IS NOT RECOMMENDED, YOU CAN CHOOSE TO DO THIS IF YOU'RE LESS CONCERNED WITH THE ACCURACY OF THE WEAPONS AND MORE INTERESTED IN BLANKETING A WIDE AREA WITH A SINGLE PULL OF THE TRIGGER.

SAMPLE BUILDS

Here are four sample Hound builds. Each is made up of affordable parts and can be put together without much effort. Try these out as-is or adjust them to suit your play style.

NOTE

AT A BARE MINIMUM, EVERY HOUND MUST INCLUDE A COCKPIT AND A CHASSIS. IT'S A GOOD IDEA TO HAVE AT LEAST ONE WEAPON AS WELL.

MORSKOJ HEAVY GUNNER

PARTS LIST

- MULTILEGGED CHASSIS MSK-ML210 (MORSKOJ)
- COCKPIT RFZ-CK-B1 (RAFZAKAEL)
- GENERATOR RFZ-GE-A2 (RAFZAKAEL)
- ROCKET LAUNCHER MSK-HA1000 (MORSKOJ)
- CANNON MSK-HC1500/D (MORSKOJ)
- 2X CANNON MSK-CN200 (MORSKOJ)
- HOWITZER RFZ-WHW-1 (RAFZAKAEL)

This Morskoj heavy gunner RT is composed of Morskoj and Rafzakael parts and doubles as a heavy-duty defender RT as well. It is durable and designed to take a pounding from invading enemies, but its heavy load keeps it from being the fastest thing on four legs. The fact that it uses one unit of energy more than it can produce also means that its already low top speed is further reduced.

Still, considering that this is a Hound designed to sit and blast anything that comes near the HQ, the speed penalty won't hurt its performance much. And having the ability to attack enemies at long and short ranges with high-powered weapons is a nice perk.

MORSKOJ SNIPER

PARTS LIST

- REVERSE JOINT CHASSIS MSK-AJ401 (MORSKOJ)
- COCKPIT MSK-C20 (MORSKOJ)
- 2X SNIPER CANNON MSK-SC200 (MORSKOJ)
- 3X HOWITZER RFZ-WHW-1 (MORSKOJ)
- GENERATOR RFZ-GE-A2 (RAFZAKAEL)

This build is an excellent long-distance war machine. Equal parts sniper and heavy gunner, it can attack enemy units and HQs with great success. Its reverse-legged chassis keeps its top speed high, and equipping a stability system device in its heavily armored cockpit helps compensate for the recoil of its cannons.

TARAKIA DEFENDER

PARTS LIST

- TREADED CHASSIS RFZ-CL-1 (RAFZAKAEL)
- 2X CANNON MO1CN FALCHION (TARAKIA)
- COCKPIT MO4GK STUART (TARAKIA)
- 2X SPACER MO6SP ARM (TARAKIA)
- 2X ARMOR MO1AM GAUNTLET (TARAKIA)
- GENERATOR MO4G VOLTA (TARAKIA)
- 2X HOWITZER MO2HW ESPADON (TARAKIA)

This sturdy defender compensates for the lightness of Tarakian armor by adding a couple of armor panels to the front, ensuring that it can withstand a withering onslaught from any enemies attacking head-on. And its twin Espadon howitzers and pair of Falchion cannons give it all the firepower it needs to hit back hard. Its combination of power and endurance make it a great choice for a base defender or penetrating striker.

SAL KAR "PILER" SOLDIER

This fast lightly armored soldier relies on a specialized attack that deals lethal amounts of damage in an instant. Armed only with six "piles," lightweight close-range bladed weapons, this Hound needs to get up close and personal on its target. Once it does, its piles make short work of the adversary.

Few Hounds can withstand a pair of piles. Almost none can withstand two. Set each pair of piles to a different weapon slot, and when attacking, hit with one pair and switch to the next, because piles have a long reload time.

Using this Hound effectively takes a great deal of practice and careful setup. The best way to attack with it is to go after an enemy who's distracted by one of your allies and isn't looking at his radar as you come up and flank him. You can also hide behind cover, wait for an enemy to approach, and charge. If you lose the element of surprise, however, you're doomed, because this is one of the least durable Hounds you can build.

THE "GOUDA SNAKE"

PARTS LIST

- TREADED CHASSIS CL-HIMAR (SAL KAR)
- 3X MISSILE LAUNCHER MSL-KHADRAWAT (SAL KAR)
- COCKPIT C-DABBUR (SAL KAR)
- GENERATOR G-KALA (SAL KAR)

One of the favorite novelty builds among Sega of America's in-house testers is the "Gouda Snake," so named for its serpentine appearance and the "cheesy" way it racks up kills: with three heat-seeking rocket launchers stacked on top of a treaded chassis.

Although it looks ridiculous, the Gouda Snake is an incredibly lethal piece of machinery. Because its weapons are stacked high, it can poke its launchers up over hills and fire without exposing its treads to enemy fire. And unless its target has antimissile assist parts, its rocket barrage is impossible to avoid, especially at close range.

The drawback of the build is its exposed cockpit, which sits atop the missile launchers. But it's hard for enemies to get a lock on the cockpit when they're being rocked by missiles.

PARTS LIST

- BIPEDAL CHASSIS TL-SAL KAR (SAL KAR)
- GENERATOR G-SHAJAR (SAL KAR)
- COCKPIT C-DABBUR (SAL KAR)
- SYSTEM DEVICE MC-SABA (UNAFFILIATED)
- 6X PILER AHP-RAS (SAL KAR)

NEROIMUS WAR

The Neroimus War is the main online campaign in ChromeHounds, an epic battle that pits thousands of players against each other in a winner-takes-all world war. Your squad of mercenaries battles on behalf of one country against other mercenary squads representing the other two nations. (You can also choose to play against AI enemies for fewer rewards and less merit.)

Just as Rome wasn't built in a day, Neroimus won't be conquered in one either. The war ends when one nation annexes all of the territories of the other two. After a nation wins the war, a Nation Supremacy or Nation Ruined sequence, depending which side of the coin you were on, plays. This is a time for the winners to reap the rewards of a glorious battle, as they receive their medals and credits, and the losers to simply watch. After the sequence plays, the Neroimus War map is unavailable for a short time as the server resets territories. However players can still quench their bloodlust by joining a Free Battle accessed through the Join Battle option.

NOTE

IF THE NEROIMUS WAR GOES ON FOR A TWO-MONTH PERIOD WITHOUT A CLEAR VICTOR EMERGING, THE WAR IS DECLARED A DRAW AND THE BOUNDARIES OF THE NEROIMUS REGION ARE RESET TO THEIR PREWAR STATES.

JOINING A MISSION

When you're ready to jump into battle, you can join the fray in one of three ways, all of which are accessed from the Battle option in the Main Lobby:

- RENDEZVOUS WITH SQUAD: IF YOUR SQUAD MEMBERS HAVE ALREADY SET UP A MISSION, CHOOSE THIS OPTION TO JOIN THEM.
- SEARCH FOR MISSIONS: LIST YOUR MISSION PREFERENCES AND SEE WHAT'S OUT THERE.
- LAUNCH MISSION: IF YOU DON'T SEE THE MISSION YOU'D LIKE TO JOIN, CREATE ONE IN THE AVAILABLE AREA OR BATTLEFIELD AND INVITE OTHERS TO JOIN.

BRIEFING

Once a battle has been set up, the players meet in the lobby, where they can view an overview of the battle that is about to take place and chat with each other over their Xbox Live headsets. If you want to customize your Hound, choose the Garage option from the screen's upper left corner.

IN THE LOBBY, SQUAD MEMBERS CAN CHAT WITH EACH OTHER AND PLAN STRATEGY BEFORE THE BATTLE.

UPON ENTERING THE BRIEFING, PLAYERS HAVE A 15-MINUTE TIME LIMIT TO COMPLETE THEIR HOUND CUSTOMIZATIONS BEFORE ENTERING BATTLE.

When all players have joined the battle, they are taken to the Briefing screen. In the briefing, squad members can continue to discuss strategy, and the squad leader determines which of the three potential allied bases will serve as the squad's HQ. In Neroimus War battles, the squad leader also sets markers that represent ACVs and other AI non-Hound units (see sidebar).

Once all players choose "Ready" from the screen's upper left corner, the battle begins.

SETTING MARKERS

During the briefing prior to a Neroimus War battle, the squad leader places markers on the battlefield that represent allied ACVs, tanks, and gun turrets. These objects are AI-controlled during the battle and attack enemies on sight.

You can use these AI support units in a number of ways. The most obvious is to surround your headquarters with them, as a last-ditch defense against advancing enemies. However, if you've played the single-player story mode, you know that ACVs, tanks, and gun turrets don't last long against even a single skilled Hound pilot. The presence of massed defender units also alerts the enemy to the fact that your base is probably somewhere nearby.

Some squads use these defender units as decoys, surrounding an unoccupied base in an attempt to convince the enemy that it's their actual headquarters. By the time the enemy fights through the defender units, they've taken a fair amount of damage, only to realize that it was all in vain. Of course, committing the defender units to this tactic prevents you from being able to use them as actual defenders.

You can also set the markers so that the units act as an early-warning system. Remember, they fire as soon as the enemy draws within range, so consider placing them along a ridge near your HQ in the direction you think the enemy will come from. As soon as you hear the units start to fire, you know that the enemy is incoming.

ONCE THE BATTLE IS SET UP, THERE IS A 15-MINUTE TIME LIMIT FOR ALL PLAYERS TO FINISH THEIR HOUND CUSTOMIZATIONS AND DECLARE THEMSELVES "READY."

OBJECTIVE

The objective of every Neroimus War mission is to hunt down and destroy all enemy Hounds or find and destroy the enemy headquarters within the time limit. If the time limit expires without either of these conditions being met, the squad that holds the most COMBASs at the end of the battle is declared the winner. If both squads have an equal number of COMBASs at the end of the battle, the battle is declared a draw, and victory is determined by the number of surviving team members or the number of COMBASs attained during the course of the battle.

Remember, Neroimus War battles aren't necessarily deathmatches. Yes, you can win the battle by destroying every enemy Hound, but you can also achieve victory without firing a shot at an enemy. In every Neroimus War battle, there are several potential enemy HQs, only one of which is their actual base. If you can find it and destroy it, the day is yours, regardless of the losses your squad takes or the number of enemy Hounds left functional.

Use your scouts to find the enemy base (it's the one with the enemy nation's flag on it) and relay that intel immediately to the rest of the squad. Ideally, you want either to draw the enemy forces away from their base or pick them off and cripple their defenses without leaving your own base undefended. Bases can withstand a huge amount of damage, so use heavy gunners and soldiers with powerful weapons to get the job done, while your snipers and scouts draw the attention of the base defenders.

DEBRIEFING

At the end of the battle, you see how each member of your squad performed during the battle. If you emerged victorious, you can assign victory rewards to each individual squad member from the Debriefing screen.

THE BATTLE RESULTS SCREEN BREAKS DOWN THE OUTCOME OF THE BATTLE.

YOUR PERSONAL ACCOUNT SCREEN BREAKS DOWN YOUR INDIVIDUAL PROFITS AND LOSSES AFTER THE BATTLE.

THE REWARD DISTRIBUTION SCREEN ALLOWS THE SQUAD LEADER TO DISTRIBUTE CASH VICTORY REWARDS TO EACH SQUAD MEMBER.

BATTLE TACTICS

If you want to rise through the ranks and achieve fame and fortune as a mercenary on the battlefield, here are a few basic techniques you should master before stepping onto the battlefield of the Neroimus War.

COVER IS YOUR FRIEND.

Use buildings, hills, COMBAS towers, and ridges to your advantage. Stay behind them and pop out when your weapons are ready to release a volley, and then duck behind them before the enemy can return fire. Just about every battle will ultimately degrade into close-up mayhem. But if you can get some free shots on an advancing enemy, you'll be that much better off for it—and who knows, you might just take them down before they get to you.

STAY IN MOTION AT ALL TIMES.

Unless your Hound is using heavy weapons with recoil, or you're remaining still to fool enemy radar, keep moving. A moving target is harder to hit, and it's much easier to dodge incoming fire when you are already in motion.

One simple and effective method is to make a figure 8 with your left analog stick. This pattern will keep you in motion without moving you away from your general position, and it's a great method to use if behind a ridge line. As you move through the top part of the 8, you can pop over the ridge and open fire before quickly stepping back behind the cover of the hill. Practice this figure 8 maneuver, and it will reward you many times over in battle.

CHICKEN RUN

Whether advancing on an enemy or retreating from one, never, ever move in a straight line. If you do so, you might as well self-destruct your Hound right then and there, because you're basically handing a free kill to the enemy. Instead, zig-zag from side to side. It makes you significantly harder to hit and virtually guarantees that the enemy will miss some of their shots on you.

WATCH YOUR LINES OF FIRE.

You can damage and be damaged by your squad members if one of you wanders in front of the other in combat. Be sure to keep in mind where you are in relation to your squad's angles of fire on their targets and keep your Hound clear of those angles. Likewise, try and maintain a sense of where your nearby allies are so that you don't wind up turning and plugging them by mistake.

GET HIGH!

Firing from an elevated position not only gives you better range on some of your weapons but also gives you better angles of fire—and therefore better shots—against your enemies. It's also worth noting that most Hound weapons have a greater range of motion downward than upward, which means that if you're up high enough on a steep ridge, you can blast away at enemies below you without having to worry about them being able to elevate their weapons high enough to return fire.

FOCUSING FIRE

Hounds are tough! Focus your fire on your enemies by coordinating with your teammates, either through tight communication or by observing who's firing on an enemy and joining in quickly. It's a simple formula: enemy Hounds go down quicker when getting shot by multiple squad members. And the faster you destroy your enemies, the less damage they are able to inflict on you and your squad.

CROSSFIRE

Crossfire is an extension of the concept of focusing fire. Whenever possible, set up your enemies in a crossfire: multiple angles of fire on the same location. This is especially useful if you and your squadmates are behind cover. An enemy who's being peppered from two different directions has a much more difficult time evading fire than an enemy who's being fired on by two Hounds from the same general direction.

AIM FOR THE SOFT SPOT!

Every part of a Hound can take damage and be destroyed. Learn to identify the various parts that make up a Hound, especially the generator and the cockpit. Both are valuable targets, although the former is much less durable than the latter. Destroying a generator will take the wind out of a Hound's sails and cripple it, while destroying the cockpit will take it out entirely.

FLANKING

Flanking maneuvers come in handy when your enemy is entrenched behind cover and you are having a hard time getting to them without taking tons of fire. The strategy here is to have one squad member continue firing on them from a forward position to keep them pinned down, while other squad members move into position to get an angle of fire from one of their sides. A killer variation on the flanking maneuver is the pincer attack, where you have positions on either side and in front of them.

It doesn't even matter if the squad member firing from the forward position is hitting the entrenched enemy. The whole idea is to release a constant barrage against their cover that keeps the enemy from being able to move out from behind the cover, giving time for your allies to move to another firing position. Not only does this protect your allies from fire while they're moving through open areas, it also makes sure that the pinned down enemy will still be there once they're in position. And once they are in position, they can provide cover fire for other squadmates who need to move. By repeating this tactic, the squad can safely leapfrog into flanking positions.

However you execute them, the whole goal of flanking maneuvers is to put your squad in firing positions that do not allow the enemy any safe cover. Wherever they try to go, someone should have an angle of fire on them. Hounds, like their canine namesakes, hunt best in packs. Remember that.

FLANKING MANEUVER

WHAT TO COMMUNICATE

Knowing what to communicate is as important as knowing how best to communicate it. Here are some examples of intel that benefit any squad:

- ENEMY SIGHTINGS: WHEN YOU SEE AN ENEMY, CALL IT OUT. GIVE A GRID LOCATION OR NEARBY COMBAS OR BASE IDENTIFICATION IN CASE YOUR ALLIES DON'T KNOW EXACTLY WHERE YOU ARE.
- ENGAGEMENTS: IF YOU ARE ENGAGING THE ENEMY OR BEING ENGAGED BY THEM, LET YOUR TEAM KNOW.
- TARGETS: IF THERE ARE MULTIPLE TARGETS, CALL OUT WHO YOU ARE FIRING ON SO THAT YOUR TEAMMATES CAN FOCUS THEIR FIRE ON YOUR TARGET. REMEMBER, AN ENEMY WHO'S GETTING SHOT BY THREE HOUNDS GOES DOWN MORE THAN THREE TIMES FASTER THAN ONE WHO'S ONLY BEING ATTACKED BY ONE.
- LAST TARGET: LOST A FIGHT? IT HAPPENS EVEN TO THE BEST HOUND PILOTS. LET YOUR SQUAD KNOW WHO YOU PUT THE HURT ON BEFORE BLOWING UP SO THAT THEY'LL KNOW WHO'S WOUNDED AND EASIER PICKINGS.
- SUPPORT REQUESTS: IF YOU'RE OUTNUMBERED AND OUTGUNNED, DON'T BE PROUD. CALL IN SUPPORT FROM YOUR SQUAD. THAT'S WHAT THEY'RE FOR. FIND YOURSELF SOME COVER, KEEP YOUR HOUND ZIG-ZAGGING, AND KEEP FIRING TO KEEP THE ENEMY FROM CLOSING IN UNTIL HELP ARRIVES.
- CHANGING POSITIONS: PLANNING ON MOVING INTO A FLANKING POSITION? HEADING OVER TO TAKE A COMBAS? LET YOUR TEAM KNOW SO THAT THEY CAN ADJUST THEIR STRATEGY ACCORDINGLY.

COMMUNICATE INTEL

Communication is essential to success in squad-based combat. If you and your squad are planning on turning the tide of the war and making a name for yourselves, you're going to need to be able to communicate quickly and effectively, which takes time and practice to be able to develop. But here are a few pointers to get you started:

CUT DOWN ON THE CHATTER.

Laughing, joking, trash talking and the like are all great elements of online play, but once engagement has begun, it's time to get down to business. This is war, not some kind of game. If you can keep the chatter down to a minimum and only communicate what is pertinent to the mission at hand, your squad will prosper as a result.

GIVE SPECIFIC DIRECTIONS AND LOCATIONS.

You never know what direction your squad members are facing so eliminate some confusion by using compass directions. Use "north," "south," "east" and "west" instead of "right," "left," "ahead," and "behind." Time permitting, try to also give them grid locations, such as: "Enemy sighted moving south through C-4."

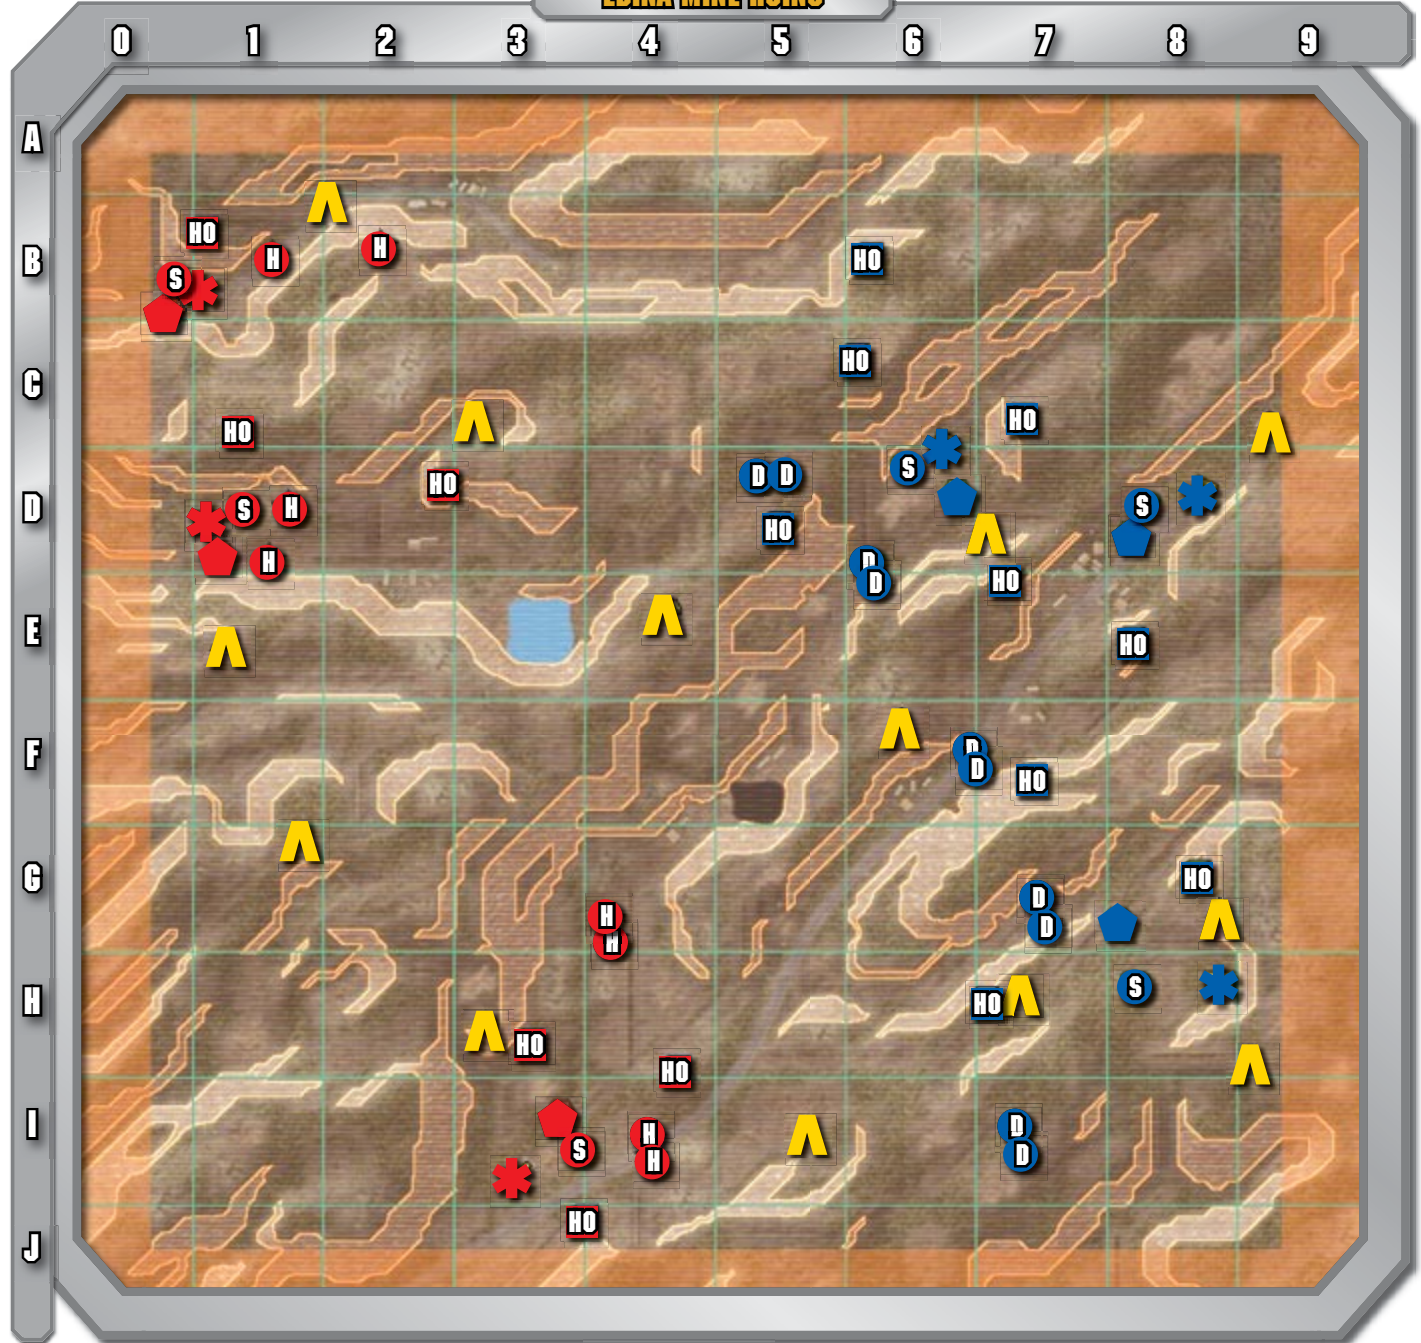

You can also use COMBASs and bases as reference points. COMBAS B on your in-game map is the same as COMBAS B on everyone else's, and it's often a lot easier to use an object as a reference than trying to figure out grid coordinates.

FREE BATTLE

FREE BATTLE OPTIONS

DESCRIPTION

DEATH MATCH, UNLIMITED, SURVIVAL, KEEP THE FLAG, AND BREAK ALL BATTLES CAN BE PLAYED AS EVERY-HOUND-FOR-ITSELF FREE-FOR-ALLS OR AS TEAM MATCHES.

STANDARD

IF YOU ARE PLAYING A FREE BATTLE IN WHICH DESTROYED HOUNDS DON'T RESPAWN, YOU REAPPEAR ON THE BATTLEFIELD AS A LOWLY FOOT SOLDIER WITH A MACHINE GUN THAT WON'T EVEN SCRATCH

A HOUND'S ARMOR. AT THIS POINT, YOU'RE EFFECTIVELY OUT OF THE BATTLE, BUT YOU RETAIN NA COMMUNICATION ABILITIES, SO YOU CAN STILL SPY ON THE ENEMY ON BEHALF OF YOUR SQUAD.

CAPTURE THE FLAG

COMBAS KEEPER

DEATH MATCH

TIP

THE VALUE OF REMAINING STILL TO AMBUSH AN OPPONENT CANNOT BE OVERSTATED. UNLESS AN OPPONENT HAS AN NA MAKER OR IS BEING FED YOUR LOCATION BY AN ALLY WHO HAS ONE, YOU ARE COMPLETELY INVISIBLE TO RADAR AS LONG AS YOU DON'T MOVE, TURN, OR FIRE. USE THIS TECHNIQUE IN CONJUNCTION WITH PILES, MULTI-ROCKETS, OR SNIPER WEAPONS TO INFLECT CRITICAL DAMAGE QUICKLY ON YOUR ENEMIES.

UNLIMITED

SURVIVAL

CAUTION

BE CAREFUL NOT TO STAND TOO CLOSE TO THE STRUCTURES YOU DESTROY IN BREAK ALL, OR YOU'LL SUFFER DAMAGE FROM THEIR COLLAPSE. AND THAT'S A LAME WAY TO GET HIT WITH A PENALTY!

APPENDIX B: HOUND PARTS

TABLE LEGEND

ACCELERATION: The relative base acceleration of the chassis. A higher value means faster acceleration.

ADDITIONAL FUEL: The amount of additional fuel this part stores, in gallons.

BASE PRICE: Cost of the part. This can be modified by a variety of factors, including your country's research and defense budget.

BRAKES: The relative base braking of the chassis. A higher value means a shorter braking time.

BULLET EXPLANATION: A brief explanation of the bullet.

BULLET NAME: The part name of the bullet.

CE DEFENSE: The degree of defense the part has versus explosive or chemical weapons, such as rockets and grenades.

CHARGES: The number of times you can fire this weapon.

CHASSIS TYPE: The base frame your Hound is built on and what type of "leg part" it is.

COM COMPATIBILITY: This specifies how compatible the legs are with the current computer chips the user has equipped.

CONDENSER CAPACITY: The degree of cooling ability of the part. A higher number means that it cools more efficiently.

CONDENSER REGEN: The measure of how quickly the cooling ability of the part recovers from heavy use. A higher value means a faster recovery.

CONDENSER USE: For Rotor Crafts, a measure of the amount of cooling needed for the part to operate properly.

COST: Cost per unit of ammunition.

COUNTRY: The country that developed the part.

DESCRIPTION: A brief description of the part.

DISPERSION: For radiators, the relative amount of heat this part cools.

DURABILITY: How much damage the part can take.

EFFECTIVE TIME: For NA jammers, the amount of time, in seconds, the jamming effect lasts.

ENERGY USE: How much energy the part requires for complete operational efficiency.

FUEL TANK CAPACITY: For generators, the amount of fuel stored, in gallons.

FULL AUTO: When the trigger is held down, the number of milliseconds between shots.

HEAT GENERATION: For generators, the amount of heat generated.

HEAT OF IMPACT: The amount of heat generated on enemy Hounds upon impact.

HOW TO ACQUIRE: How to unlock the part. Single Play means the part is unlocked in Single Player Campaign Mode; Network means the part can be unlocked in online play; Download means it can be downloaded from the Xbox Marketplace.

INTERNAL POWER: The amount of base power generated by the cockpit (useful for those times your generator is destroyed).

KE DEFENSE: The degree of defense the part has versus kinetic weapons, such as bullets and piles.

MAX AMMO: The amount of ammunition contained in the weapon.

MAX. LOAD: How much total weight the chassis can support, in tons, not including the weight of the chassis itself.

NA RANGE: For NA makers, the radius of the NA field created, in meters.

PART NAME: The name of the part as listed in the game.

PARTS MANAGEMENT: The total amount of different parts you can attach to the cockpit.

PENETRATION POWER: The ability of the ammunition to penetrate CE/KE defense. The higher the value, the more damage it does.

POWER GENERATION: For generators, the amount of power created and available.

POWER USE: The amount of energy used by the part.

RELOAD TIME: The amount of time it takes to reload the weapon, in milliseconds.

ROTATION SPEED: The relative base rotation speed of the cockpit and gun mount on the chassis. A higher value means a quicker rotation.

SCOPE: The type of scope available for weapon camera view. Normal scopes allow for a standard viewing area and range. High Angle scopes allow a wider viewing area at the expense of magnification. Sniper scopes allow more magnification at the expense of visible angle.

SEARCH RANGE: For sensors, the effective range of the sensor part in meters.

SHOCK ABSORPTION: The amount of damage the chassis can absorb from falls. A higher value means the Hound takes less damage.

SPEED: The base speed of the chassis, in kilometers per hour.

STABILITY: The general stability of the chassis versus recoil. The higher the value, the less recoil is suffered when heavy weapons are fired.

SYSTEM SOCKETS: For cockpits an indicator of how many sockets are available for system upgrades.

TURNING SPEED: The relative base turning speed of the chassis. A higher value means that the Hound can make tighter turns.

WEIGHT: How much the part weighs, in tons.
